Area Section Of Freeway Is Advanced

Segment Of Route 7 To 170 Given New Priority For '61-63

The State Highway Department has assigned a higher priority to the second stage of the southern end of an Ohio River-Lake Erie Freeway, which means a new 3-mile stretch from Route 170 to the Route 7 intersection will be put on the program for the 1961-63 biennium.

That information was given to officers and directors of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association at a meeting Tuesday night in Salem by William McKenna, head of the Highway Department's Division 11 office at New Philadelphia.

The department already has scheduled construction of the first southern stage of the lake-river road, extending from the city limits in California Hollow northwest to a point where the Y. & O. Rd. now intersects Route 30. The project will include an interchange to link Route 170 with the new four-lane road.

McKenna's statement that the second stage will be put on the program for 1961-63 was the first indication when construction may be expected to start. Previously, the highway Department had made no commitment about the second stage.

McKenna also revealed that Highway Department appraisers will begin work Monday in East Liverpool, fixing prices on some of the California Hollow properties that will be affected by relocation of the Carpenters Run trunk line sewer in connection with a city freeway stage extending from the city limits to W. 3rd and Monroe Sts. The city freeway and the lake-river road will be tied together at the city limits.

Acquisition of some of the property is necessary because the city is preparing to call for contractors' bids for the sewer relocation.

The lake-river road is known officially as State Route 11. The highway association discussed the project with McKenna and Paul Kostyshak, head of the Division 4 office at Ravenna. When completed, the road will link East Liverpool's river ports with Lake Erie at Ashtabula.

The association, organized in January 1958, is composed of auto clubs, Chambers of Commerce and other civic groups in Ashtabula, Trumbull, Mahoning and Columbiana Counties.

Plans are expected to be ready for bidders by the first of the year for a section that will run from a point a mile south of Route 1 (Conneaut to Cincinnati Freeway) in Ashtabula County to just north of Route 20, according to Al Kasch, Division 4 engineer.

By the spring of 1960, another portion from north of Route 20 to the harbor, will be ready for bidding, Kasch said.

Division 4, which has charge of the work north of Salem, will have the plans ready for bidding by July 1, 1961, which is the earliest time that highway construction funds will be available, Kasch said.

Khrushchev Shows Signs Of Tiring On Rugged U. S. Tour

Red Leader To Get Look At Tall Corn

Obviously Happy At Friendly Reception Received In Iowa

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev, beginning to show signs of heavy fatigue, started another rugged round of activities today with a 75-mile automobile trip for a close look at Iowa's tall corn.

The Soviet Premier, though obviously happy at the friendly reception he received in America's corn belt, showed definite signs Tuesday night of being dog-tired after more than a week of strenuous touring, speaking and arguing.

Khrushchev traveled to the farm of Roswell (Bob) Garst near Coon Rapids for a look at American methods of raising corn and producing animal fodder, subjects close to Khrushchev's heart. Garst has been Khrushchev's guest in the Soviet Union several times.

The Khrushchev motorcade left for Coon Rapids, about an hour's drive away, in mild and sunny weather. Several hundred persons

Mr. K. To Arrive In Pittsburgh Tonight

PITTSBURGH — Nikita S. Khrushchev will arrive in Pittsburgh late tonight.

Whatever Mr. Khrushchev will see of Pittsburgh in his 16 - hour stay, Pittsburghers will see relatively little of him.

His plane will set down at Greater Pittsburgh Airport about 11 o'clock tonight. However, travelers in the airport won't see much of him because the plane will taxi to the 2253rd Air Force Base hangar, one - fourth of a mile from the terminal, for the disembarkation.

Issue Shelved Year

Red China Again Rejected By U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States succeeded again Tuesday in getting the United Nations to sidetrack for another year the question of admitting Communist China.

But despite recent turmoil in Asia for which the West blamed the Chinese Reds the victory margin was one vote less than last year.

But a vote of 44-29 with nine abstentions the General Assembly approved a United States resolution asking that it postpone any consideration of proposals either to admit the Chinese Reds or exclude the Chinese Nationalists.

It was the ninth straight year the UN had sidetracked the Red China membership issue.

By its action the Assembly rejected Soviet Premier Khrushchev's personal plea here last week that it was high time to kick out the Chinese Nationalists and install the Chinese Reds as one of the major UN powers.

The vote last year on an identical resolution was 44-28 with nine abstentions. There were some switches this year. Guinea, a new member, joined the many Asian African nations opposing the United States stand.

This year Laos changed its vote from abstaining to yes. The Southeast Asia kingdom has accused Peiping of encouraging North Viet Nam in acts of aggression along the northern border. A UN subcommittee is in Laos investigating the charges.

Cuba cracked the hitherto solid position of the 20 - nation Latin-American bloc supporting the United States position. The delegation here of Premier Fidel Castro's regime abstained, the only Latin American nation to do so.

Greece, which abstained last year reflected unhappiness with the Western delegations over their position on Cyprus.

The vote was also a rebuff to India which again championed the right of Red China to UN membership.

Defense Minister V. K. Krishma Menon made a final plea for approval of a Nepalese resolution that would have reversed the United States proposal.

The United States' charges that India was asking the UN to modify its standards to accommodate "the power of lawlessness," Menon replied:

"The Government of India is never lacking in candor. We never refrain from putting forth our point of view no matter how unpopular it is."

In answer to questions as to why India was pushing Red China's membership at a time when it was charging Peiping with border transgressions, Menon remarked:

"The Government of India cannot accept the proposition that 81 other nations here are more concerned over the integrity of our soil than we are."

He said that to vote again to postpone the issue was to adopt "ostrich - like attitude."

As to charges made by the United States that Peiping was guilty of crimes against the Tibetan people, Menon argued that the Chinese Reds should be present in the UN to answer the accusations.

5 Are Seized In West Coast Boxing Probe

Indicted, Arrested In Effort To Control World Welter King

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Five men seized in a nation-wide FBI round-up are accused of trying to grab control of world welterweight champion Don Jordan.

A federal grand jury investigating underworld influence in boxing indicted them Tuesday in Los Angeles. They were arrested within a few hours in Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The indictments charged conspiracy to extort money from Jordan's manager, Don Nesseth of Covina, Calif., and Jackie Leonard, former Hollywood Legion Stadium boxing promoter.

Under arrest are:

Paul John Carbo, known as Frankie Carbo, 55, of New York City. He is under indictment in New York for undercover management of fighters.

Frank (Blinky) Palermo, 54, Philadelphia boxing manager.

Truman Gibson Jr., 47, Chicago attorney, president of National Boxing Enterprises Inc., and former president of the International Boxing Club.

Joseph Sica, 48, Los Angeles, who has a record of arrests going back to 1928.

Louis Tom Dragna, 39, West Covina, Calif., manager of a clothing store and described as having been involved in bookmaking.

The indictment alleged that Palermo extorted $1,725 from Leonard through threats of harming him and Nesseth.

Leonard had no interest in Jordan's management but said Palermo and Carbo made him an unwilling go-between in their purported effort to muscle in on Nesseth's contract with Jordan.

Leonard and Nesseth testified before a California Athletic Commission hearing last May and before the grand jury.

The indictment contains 10 counts under the anti-racketeering act and the federal extortion statutes. The laws carry penalties up to 20 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine for each offense.

Former Road Worker Tells Of Collections

Jury Hears Edward Nitsche At Trial Of Neff And 4 Others

BEAVER — Edward Nitsche, a former State Highway Department worker, says he collected money from highway contractors and turned it over to former state Sen. Samuel Neff.

Nitsche testified Tuesday at the trial of Neff and four others charged with extortion and conspiracy to commit extortion.

Neff, Nitsche, Robert Yoho, Leon Kaleta and James Macry, all former highway department employes in Beaver County, are accused of collecting kickbacks on money contractors received for leasing highway equipment to the state.

Nitsche is the only one of the defendants who pleaded guilty and agreed to testify for the state.

Nitsche said he, Yoho and Macry were told by Neff in December 1955 to begin collecting from contractors 5 per cent of the amount they received from leasing their equipment to the state.

Nitsche told the court he collected the payments for about 13 months, turning over the cash to Neff at intervals of one month to 6 weeks along with a list of the contributors.

Clarence Corbin, a Beaver Falls contractor and a witness Tuesday afternoon,, was recalled this morning and testified about making payments to Yoho and Kaleta. He said Yoho tried to get an additional 5 per cent for himself but settled for 2 per cent.

Corbin said payments were not made for too long a period to Yoho, who took a job in Harris-

Ike-Mitchell Parley Slated On Steel Tieup

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 71-day steel strike hangs over a conference today between Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell and President Eisenhower.

No official agenda was listed. But White House press secretary James C. Hagerty, when queried about the subject of the talks, told newsmen: "I would assume that you couldn't have a meeting between the President and the secretary without discussing the steel strike."

There has been speculation that the administration may decide soon whether to invoke the Taft-Hartley law. Under the law, the President could try for a court injunction that would halt the strike for at least 80 days.

A half-million members of the United Steelworkers Union are striking, cutting the nation's steel production to 10 per cent of capacity. Other industries that feed on steel have been forced to lay off 175,000 workers.

Firemen Quell Brush Fire As Boy Is Burned

Youth Falls Through Crust Of Smoldering Dump At Cemetery

A Pleasant Heights boy received burns Tuesday afternoon when he fell through the top crust of the burning brush dump at the rear of Spring Grove Cemetery, touching off operations by volunteer firemen which resulted in the four-day-old blaze being completely quelled.

Over 50 men from 2 departments and the Civil Defense worked almost 10 hours before leaving the scene at 5:30 a. m. today. They started last night at 8.

Meanwhile, Ralph Temple, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Temple of Bates St., is in "fair" condition at City Hospital with first and second degree burns of the hands, arms, legs and feet.

The youth, a seventh grade student at Westgate School, tumbled into the hot ashes when the crust

From Pocketbook To Foreign Policy

Voter Due Full Treatment In Presidential Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American voter apparently is going to get the full treatment on everything from the pocketbook issue to foreign policy in the 1960 presidential campaign.

In the warmup phase of next year's contest for the White House, Sens. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) injected international policy into the battle Tuesday. Both are regarded as available for their party's top nomination in 1960.

Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill) accused an anti-inflation committee headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon of engaging in propaganda instead of trying to find a cure for rising prices.

Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn), one of President Eisenhower's staunchest supporters, denied this and in turn accused Douglas of bringing politics into a Senate-House committee's inquiry into economic conditions.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa) said "so-called economizers" are letting America fall far behind in meeting the needs of the people for public services. In a speech at Danville, Pa., he proposed moves to expand the economy, close tax loopholes, curb tax evasion and to cut wasteful expenditures.

In a report to constituents, Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa) quoted Lord Macaulay that "a government which attempts more than it ought will perform less." Scott said President Eisenhower's vetoes, "a militant Republican minority" in Congress and "the outrage of the American people" had killed Democratic spending programs.

Johnson and Humphrey called for a positive program in the cold war battle with communism. They made it clear they do not think the Eisenhower administration is providing such a program.

Johnson's remarks were in a speech prepared for a Galveston, Tex., audience. But in addressing the group he chose instead to talk of the U.S. visit of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Strike Hits Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — A 48-hour general strike by 100 unions today paralyzed Argentina's economy. Thousands of workers walked out Tuesday when the government rejected a list of grievances because they were more political than constructive.

Child Who Gulped 15 Cold Tablets Dies

Mark Ilroy Vickery, 2½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vickery of Tuscarawas Rd., Beaver R. D. 1, died this morning at Children's Hospital in Pittsburgh after swallowing an estimated 10 to 15 cold tablets.

He was taken to the Rochester General Hospital at 10 a. m. Tuesday and rushed to Children's Hospital at 12:15 p. m. Besides his parents, he is survived by four brothers and sisters. The body is at the Coleman Funeral Home in Rochester. Arrangements are incomplete.

Check Mr. K's Hot Dog

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—A hot dog Nikita Khrushchev ate at a Des Moines packing plant here Tuesday—the first he ever tasted—was checked by security men with Geiger counters before he ate it.

Youth Jailed For Burglary

Chester Suspect Held In Entry At Newell

A Chester youth was bound over to the January Grand Jury in Hancock County on a breaking and entering charge at a hearing Tuesday before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

John C. Page, 18, was lodged in the County Jail when unable to post $1,500 bond following his arrest yesterday morning by sheriff's deputies.

Page is accused of breaking into the Potters Inn on Harrison St., Newell, Monday night and taking $7.95 in change from a cannister. The money was to be used for purchasing flowers for a sick member of the suspect's family, deputis said.

Deputies allege he entered the restaurant through the front door with a key and later kicked out a window in the door to cover up the burglary.

Page's sister, Mrs. Virginia Reynolds, swore out a arrant for the arrest after finding the funds hidden in a rabbit pen, deputies said.

Squire Herron also fined Thomas Lee Blankenship, 18, of Weirton $10 and costs for operating an auto with a noisy muffler, and Robert G. McCartney, 18, of New Cumberland $10 and costs for driving with defective brakes.

Both were cited recently by officers of the Weirton Detachment of the West Virginia State Police.

No Soviet Flag To Fly; Pittsburgh In Dilemma

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pittsburgh city officials were in a momentary dilemma today. They found they had no Soviet flag to fly when Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev comes to town tonight.

Mayor Thomas Gallagher said the Soviet flag was stolen about a year ago and had never been replaced.

A new flag has been ordered.

10 Children, Wife, Brother Die

Wanted In Same Boat, Father Says Of Drownings

MUNISING, Mich. (AP)—"They wanted to get in the same boat because it would be more fun."

A bewildered father — the only survivor of a boating accident that took the lives of his wife, 10 children and his brother — was too grief-stricken for tears as he described the tragedy to state police.

"I was very confused — it all happened so suddenly," said Leonard Larson, 42, as the bodies were brought ashore from Lake McKeever in Upper Michigan's Hiawatha National Forest Tuesday.

The family, on a day's outing to pick wild cranberries, had piled into a 12-foot outboard motorboat. It capsized 40 feet from shore. None could swim. The father saved himself by climbing atop the overturned boat.

Helpless, he saw his wife, children and his brother, Harry, 64, go down in water so clear the bodies could be seen 15 feet down.

All the Larsons' children but the oldest daughter, Doris May, 16, were along. She was attending high school in Marquette.

Leonard Larson is a sawmill worker in the little lumbering town of Skandia, 30 miles from the scene of the tragedy.

The children were out of classes because the village school was closed for the day for repairs.

The boat belonged to the uncle, a bachelor, who helped care for some of the children at his home and was always included in the family circle. The uncle also worked at the sawmill.

The victims were the mother, Dora Larson, 41; the uncle, and the children — Arthur, 15; Shirley, 13; Harry, 10; Marlene, 9; Freddie, 8; Carol, 7; Robert, 6; Mary Ann, 5; Melody, 4, and Terry Lee, 5 months.

Wardens Set In Prevention Of Rural Fires

With the start of the autumn forest fire season Oct. 1, the district office of the Ohio Division of Forestry at New Philadelphia has announced the names of wardens for 11 townships in Columbiana County.

Because of the lack of rain, along with the annual fall drying of summer vegetation, area brush and forest lands have become highly flammable, and residents should use extreme caution in kindling fires out - of - doors.

Persons residing in the division's organized fire protection area are required to obtain permits from wardens before starting any blazes outside incorporated towns and villages. The season lasts through November.

Wardens for the townships in the protection area are:

Skirmishes Reported Between Laotians, Reds

VIENTIANE (AP) — The Laotian army today reported widespread skirmishes between government troops and Communist guerrillas around the northern defense headquarters of Sam Neua.

The army also said that three Black Thai battalions equipped and trained by Communists, moved within 20 miles of the town.

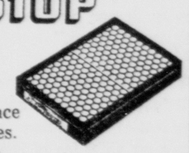

A U.N. fact-finding team reported it was still studying Laotian charges of Communist aggression.

Arguments For The Labor Reform Law

The latest issue of the "Ohio AFL-CIO News" uses quotes from a couple of prominent men in an apparent effort to show the new Landrum-Griffin labor reform law deals a foul blow at organized labor.

Taken together, however, the two comments actually make a pretty good case for the measure.

The News first cites Sen. John Kennedy's speech before the AFL-CIO Building and Construction Trades Department in San Francisco two weeks ago. Sen. Kennedy criticized what he termed certain unfair, unsound and one-sided provisions. He also said that the Kennedy-Ives bill of the previous year would have been "effective anti-racketeering legislation" without the more restrictive provisions written into this year's law.

Then, on another page, the News reprints this comment by AFL-CIO President George Meany:

"The trade union movement will survive. Make no mistake about that. Restrictive legislation undoubtedly will prevent us from moving forward as rapidly as we otherwise would. But it will not stop us nor will it destroy us. The trade union movement has become an integral part of the institutional life of our country. It can only be destroyed if America itself is destroyed."

SEN. KENNEDY'S remarks must be viewed in light of his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination. In an effort to please people on all sides of the issue, he concedes on the one hand that there was a need for legislation to curb racketeering in labor relations but on the other hand spurns responsibility for the legislation that was passed.

What both he and the News failed to mention was organized labor's own hand in the tougher law that finally went on the books. It is reasonable to assume that if the AFL-CIO had taken a realistic appraisal of both the need and the public demand for anti-racketeering legislation, instead of adamantly rejecting both, it could have accomplished a compromise at some point short of the statute which it now feels has been jammed unfairly down its throat.

But while it was fighting blindly against all legislative efforts to curb the racketeers in the labor movement, more and more revelations of flagrant misuse of union power served to increase the demand for restrictive action.

And that brings up Mr. Meany's statement, which is perhaps an eloquent a defense of the Landrum-Griffin law as can be found.

There is no doubt that the law is restrictive. It would be a hollow piece of legislation if it were not.

BUT WHAT it attempts to restrict are the unsavory practices by some union bosses that actually pose a greater threat to the healthy development of the labor movement than the combined efforts of all the union-baiters in existence.

The great majority of Americans, being working people want trade unionism to survive. Even labor's traditional adversaries, the businessmen who represent management, recognize the contribution that unionism has made to American capitalism—the "institutional life of our country," as Mr. Meany puts it.

It is because of that contribution that the weight of public opinion supported—even made possible in the eleventh hour—the passage of the new labor reform law.

It is aimed at helping the trade union movement to survive the foul blows dealt it by unprincipled men who would pervert it from the goal of the common good for their own private purposes.

Reaching The Real Mr. K

The State Department may be suffering from nervous twitch over provocations that send Nikita Khrushchev's blood pressure soaring, but chances are the encounters are simply an indication that Americans in general are beginning to feel more comfortable with their Red visitor.

Both the diplomats and the ordinary citizens have a point.

The diplomat's forte is his ability to pretend — when face to face with an antagonist —that things are peachy when in reality they are not. The diplomat, therefore, can bargain with an adversary even when he knows the latter is lying through his teeth.

This is an indispensable factor in international relations. It is one of the things that has kept the Cold War from getting unbearably hot.

But most people are not diplomats. Americans especially have the sometimes irksome habit of always wanting to call a spade a spade.

THIS DOES not mean that ordinary Americans are unwilling to bargain with Nikita Khrushchev if that will serve the interests of world peace. It just means they have no stomach for dealing with a masked man.

And that is what Nikita Khrushchev appeared to most Americans to be when he started his visit to the United States a week ago. Despite his high-sounding speeches and his cheery waves and his smiling face, the people who stood along the streets and watched him could not remove from their minds the picture of the Communist dictator whose actions in the past belie just about everything he said.

Consequently, people were cool because they were suspicious. How can a man get enthusiastic over talk of peace when he cannot rely on the integrity of the talker?

If was only after Mr. Khrushchev got his dander up over some embarrassing questions at a series of official functions that ordinary Americans began to feel relaxed about his presence. The questions were not answered, but they did serve on occasion to strip away the mask. What remained was the Khrushchev that people suspected was there all the time—the Khrushchev they are most familiar with.

That makes the job of entertaining him a lot easier. We know that if Mr. K was trying to pull the wool over our eyes, he did not get away with it. And we know that he knows we know.

WHEN THE Russian boss returns to Washington from his cross-country trip, the diplomats, headed by President Eisenhower, will take over again. And the frankness, the refusal to be hornswoggled, that greeted Mr. K across the land may prove to be a boon in their negotiations.

That may be just what the President had in mind when he set up the whole affair. That may be why, before the visit began, he told his countrymen they should be courteous to Mr. K but they did not have to admire or respect him. That may be why, when he greeted Mr. K at the airport a week ago, he reminded him that America is vastly different from Russia and one of the differences is that in America the people hold the original and the ultimate power.

Mr. Eisenhower will have to abide by all the rules of diplomacy in his talks with Mr. Khrushchev. But they will both know that the President represents people who do not like to deal with a masked man.

This may not help Mr. K's cause, but it should make the President a lot more comfortable.

Time Puzzle

The arguments are going 'round and 'round again like the hands of a clock as fast time moves into its most controversial period — that between the end of September and the end of October.

So many factors are involved that a satisfactory solution appears impossible unless some uniform state or federal action should take place. And this is a most remote possibility.

East Liverpool and other nearby communities find the situation even more perplexing because of their tri-state complexion.

Conceding the complexity of the problem, it, nevertheless, seems that some relief would result if the time were allowed to go "slow" everywhere again at the end of September. To our way of thinking, extension of fast time through October never has made too much sense.

It seems logical to suggest once more that the various factions in East Liverpool and representatives of other district communities get together and talk the whole thing over. It's quite possible that some unanimity of opinion would result which could unsnarl much of the present confusion.

The meeting should be now, however, while the problem is at hand. Should it be delayed too long, the same tangle that exists today could be with us again at this time next year.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Khrushchev having seen Hollywood producing "Can-Can," encountered American labor leaders, met up with California "smog," got caught in Dodgers-Giant pennant belt and felt the fierce power of our guided-toastmasters. At the Roswell Garst farm he will find the corn far below the California type. (Coon Rapids grows it taller but any California master of ceremonies produces it thicker.)

Hollywood, we hear, made Khrushchev offers for the movie rights to the moon. Iowa visit will prove a relief to Nikita from banquet hall food and give him some home cooking, including ham and eggs country style. But apple pie with breakfast may be declared an aggressive act.

Coon Rapids is in high state of excitement. Even the cows are emotionally disturbed. Not a cow ever dreamt a Soviet chief would over cross Iowa borders, even if all he wanted was milk.

Roswell Garst is bearing it well but the biggest group of photographers, correspondents and detectives ever to besiege a cornfield have the farm surrounded. The photographers alone are sufficient to blot out any view of the Garst cornfield and Roswell has already cried, "It's all very well to protect Khrushchev but who protects my farm?"

We got the script of the imaginary dialogue as Roswell and the Soviet chief met:

Garst: Welcome, and I'm happy to see you interested in corn.

K: I am for coexistence between the corn and noncorn world. The Soviet Union stands for peace, bigger corn cobs and a more scientific disposal of corn shucks, probably on the moon.

Garst: What would you like to see first?

K: Your idle steel mills.

Garst: They're in Pittsburgh, not here.

K: On a hectic trip like this I get confused.

Garst: I don't see how you could get confused on corn.

K: If you'd endured all the corn I have, speech by speech, you would understand.

Dove Or Decoy?

A Capone Pal Sets Up Shop Again

By Victor Riesel

SAN FRANCISCO

With the heat off, whimsy has overwhelmed the old Capone crowd. One of Scarface Al's old comrades in arms — any calibre — now is opening shop in California and is advertising in the press for clients. His specialty in the protection business has been pushing hotel and restaurant unions around. Chicago got too hot after the McClellan rackets committee ripped the inn keeping and eatery business wide open.

Victor Riesel

So now that Bob Kennedy is an author and not an investigator, the old Capone arm, by the name of Abe Teitelbaum, has shifted to California.

With Los Angeles as a base, he is holding open house for "friends and clients."

Teitelbaum was the $125,000-a-year labor relations adviser to Chicago's restaurateurs for a long while.

Now he is telling the public brazenly that he has moved to Beverly Hills and that he has "represented for 15 years the Chicago Restaurant Assn. as labor relations counsel, also represented Greater Chicago Hotel Assn., and numerous others.

Friends and clients were "cordially invited to attend open house, formal opening on Monday, the 21st day of September, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m."

THERE WAS NOTHING whimsical, however, about the reaction of some of the labor leaders at the national AFL-CIO convention to the disdainful public soliciting of business by an old Capone man.

They're disturbed. But, strangely enough, there has been no discussion of the mob at this parley —a discussion which dominated the last convention when the Teamsters were booted out into the icy Atlantic City sleet.

Behind this silence on the mob, which still controls sections of powerful unions in Chicago, New York, several Jersey cities, some Pennsylvania areas and stretches of the Midwest, is confusion over the real effect of the new Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act.

And despite all the noise you hear over Chairman Khrushchev and the steel strike it's labor's reaction to the new law which is the basic story of this hard working convention.

Under the new law, the government can go into the private life and activities of any labor official clean or crooked. The government can ask any union man any question.

If a union official refuses to answer and takes the Fifth Amendment, he is unable to continue to hold office under the AFL-CIO Code of Ethical Practices. This puts the union officials on the spot.

THUS IT IS that Walter Reuther has told his own people that he wants the Ethical Practices Code revised to give all union men the right to take the Fifth Amendment to cover their private lives and still retain public office in the unions.

There are other powerful leaders who want to kill off labor's own Ethical Practices Committee completely.

Some of the committee members, queried by this column, believe that the Ethical Practices Committee now could inadvertently prepare evidence which would send labor leaders to jail, instead of just disciplining them and directing them to clean up a union.

This, they believe, could happen if Section 601 of the new labor law is enforced. This section gives the secretary of labor terrific power to subpena all records, minutes, even notes taken at Ethical Practices Committee sessions.

Under the still unexplored law, the secretary of labor has the power to order members of labor's own policing force even to report their private conversations to him.

The Justice Department could use the notes or minutes or private talks as evidence of wrongdoing in a union.

The labor secretary and the attorney general could then go into court seeking heavy fines and jail sentences for offending officials.

Under these circumstances, some of the Ethical Practices committeemen are saying angrily, "Let the government now police the unions. We just won't meet."

They point out, for example, that, under the law, AFL-CIO president George Meany could be subpoenaed.

AT PRESENT he receives special reports from his observers who keep their eyes on the Operating Engineers, the old AFL Textile Workers, the Jewelry Workers and the Distillery Workers. Soon there will be an observer inside the eastern Longshoremen.

These are confidential reports. Some — such as those covering the old Johnny Dio union, the Allied Industrial Workers — say that the union now is clean and the racket forces are out.

Others, such as those covering the Operating Engineers and the International Longshoremen's Assn., report progress but state that there are still some corruption pockets.

The labor people believe they can clean these up. But they say that the private reports could be the evidence for a swift move by the Justice Department which could stymie the work of the Ethical Practices Committee.

So the labor people are quietly awaiting clarification of the new law. There is no McClellan racket busting committee.

The new law won't be functioning for a while. So the heat's off and the boys are back. Small wonder they're whimsical.

The Three Nikkys

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

There are three Nikita Khrushchevs. Two are actors and the third is a publicity man with such good timing and change of pace he makes the Madison avenue boys look as lively as Spanish-American War veterans.

There is Khrushchev, the Soviet Premier, with his eye on the main chance. There is Khrushchev, the top economist, playing on the American stage to one audience in the West and to another in the rest of the world.

And there is Khrushchev the publicity man, working to advertise the other two. Although his every movement and word would get headlines anyway, he has managed to do at least one thing every day to get added attention.

As leader of the Soviet Union, which represents itself as the friend of all people, he talks peace, peace, peace and trade, trade, trade, although saying it doesn't matter whether the United States wants to trade with the U.S.S.R.

But if he can make any yardage here—if he can get any concessions—he will consider his trip a big success.

The irony of all his talk of peace is that out of a cloudless sky months ago he created crisis by threatening to shut off West Berlin unless the West gets its troops out of there. He hasn't budged an inch. Because he hasn't, he has been invited here to talk things over.

As he moves around, talking peace, he holds over the West the same threat of a shut-off Berlin. He wants concessions. There is no sign he came to make any. So he got this trip and world attention at a cost of nothing more than a threat.

Then there is Khrushchev, the Communist actor. He gave a possible insight into his conduct here when he spoke of this country in a heated moment Sunday night while talking to labor leaders: "You have been spoiled by everyone bowing down, by everyone cringing and crawling."

He apparently set out to do just the opposite. He brags of Soviet progress, has very little flattering to say about American achievement, and even gets personally insulting, although so far he has picked targets who can't hurt him.

He told labor leaders they were management stooges; he questioned whether the mayor of Los Angeles could read; and when a frankfurter man happily told him hot dogs need "good meat," Khrushchev hit him with: "Any fool knows that."

This performance—by the master of communism riding roughshod through the citadel of capitalism—cannot help but be impressive to the Communist, neutral and backward peoples of the world.

It was like hearing him tell them: "I got those big shots told off, didn't I?"

But this same performance has had a different effect in the Western world which has watched with astonishment his unpredictability, his mercurial temper, his impetuosity, his bellgerency, his too obvious attempts to appear contemptuous and superior.

Since this man holds the key to peace, and presumably to war, the West cannot avoid misgivings and worry about dealing with him.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — A delegation from the East Liverpool Lions Club attended the charter anniversary of the Wooster Club.

Dr. L. L. Hunter of Midland left for St. Louis, where he enrolled in Washington University.

Mrs. Glen Woods was named president of the Philathea Class of the First Baptist Church.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — With Dave Alston starring, Midland High School's football team defeated Rochester, 21-7.

Karl E. Schlundt, manager of the East Liverpool office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., again headed the annual Red Cross roll call campaign here.

TEN YEARS AGO — The last of two new fire trucks ordered by the city was placed in service.

Donald Bennett Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bennett, W. Center Ln., was promoted to corporal with an ordinance supply unit in Munich, Germany.

The installation of the new two-way radio for the Wellsville Police Department was completed.

Praise For Coalition

By David Lawrence

Conservatives In Both Parties Cited

The real story of what happened at the last session of Congress somehow isn't being told. Republicans claim credit for important laws passed and sound fiscal policies upheld. Democrats argue that they, too, kept the spending down.

David Lawrence

The usual flood of statements "pointing with pride" or "viewing with alarm" has been issued. What is the fundamental truth?

The fact is that neither party can claim credit for the achievements, nor can either party be blamed for the failures.

For there is no way of fixing responsibility in an irresponsible government such as America has today.

When the American people a year ago November voted into Congress enough Democrats from the Northern states to give that party a two-thirds majority, because the South always elects Democrats, the nation was told that the Democratic party had obtained "control."

Yet the White House continued in the hands of the Republican party.

Divided government spells irresponsibility. The national legislature and the executive are always of the same party in any system of responsible government.

ACTUALLY on every important measure of a highly controversial nature it was the Republicans in coalition with the Southern Democrats who gave the nation some of the constructive legislation just passed.

It was the Southern bloc which helped to keep government spending down.

When Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas and Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas talk in their political statements about the way the Democrats held the line on expenditures, this wasn't any action on the part of the Democratic party as a whole. It was a combination with Republicans in both houses that did it.

Actually, if the Democrats from the North, instead of such champions of moderation as Messrs. Johnson and Rayburn, had been allowed to run the Democratic party in Congress and dominate its committee chairmanships, the budget would have been grossly unbalanced.

The conservative coalition saved the country from disaster at the last session of Congress. Had the Northern Democrats been given their way, the confidence of the business would have been shaken, prices would be skyrocketing today, and the increased inflation would have further diminished the purchasing power of the dollar.

President Eisenhower, as is customary after every session, sums up the case and bestows praise for good things done and expresses satisfaction that certain bad things were not done.

But Mr. Eisenhower didn't fail to put his finger on the crux of the problem when he said in his formal statement last weekend:

"I pay my respects to those among the political opposition without whose cooperation our efforts against extravagance and legislative excesses would have been in vain. These men, though subjected to severe party pressures, had the conviction and courage to stand up and be counted on issue after issue basic to the welfare of the nation. Sincerely I congratulate them for their good work for America this session."

THIS IS but another way of saying that conservatives stood together against "radicals" or "liberal spenders."

The South, which is the stronghold of conservatism, spared the nation the excesses that a radical wing of the Democratic party would have enacted. But it is to be noted that there isn't a majority always for conservative positions.

The important fact, on the other hand, is that there is no two-thirds majority for radicalism and, as long as that's true, a presidential veto can prevent a simple majority from enacting undesirable laws.

The President was gracious in his praise, too, for those Democrats who abandoned partisanship on foreign affairs, even though they didn't go along with the administration on domestic questions. He said:

"Next I acknowledge, as I have each year, my appreciation to those members of both parties who have approached in a bipartisan manner most of the matters important to the nation's security and the conduct of foreign relations.

"To this standard of being Americans first and Democrats or Republicans second when the nation's safety and world peace are involved, all of us must steadfastly adhere. I am gratified that so many have done so."

These accomplishments are due also to no small extent to the effective role of leadership played by the President.

WHEN ALL IS SAID and done, a catastrophe in Congress has been averted in recent months only by the fact that a man who had the confidence of the people of the United States is in the White House. Public opinion still rules.

One shudders to think, however, what may happen to the economic position of the United States at home and abroad if presidential leadership should falter in the next several years—that is, if the radical wing of the Democratic party not only gets a big majority in Congress but elects to the White House a candidate holding its ideological beliefs.

The issue in the 1960 campaign might well point up the direct challenge presented by radicalism and fiscal irresponsibility.

The Democrats in the South will continue conservative, but in the North the voters are about evenly divided between Republicans and Democrats. It is in the primaries of both parties, therefore, where the battle should be fought so that non-radicals will be elected to Congress irrespective of the party label.

Russian Mighty Mites

By Robert Branson

Soviet bodyguards accompanying Nikita Khrushchev are packing small, powerful weapons of a type unfamiliar to U.S. security agents.

The miniature revolvers appear to be about .25 caliber, it was revealed by Elmer Hipsley, Chief of the U.S. State Department security police traveling with Khrushchev.

"They look something like what we call a banker's special," he said. "I got a look when we were talking arrangements over with the Russians. One had a shoulder holster and another fellow had a hip holster."

Hipsley said the odd-looking Russian weapons aroused his curiosity but he did not feel like asking to inspect them.

American agents of the FBI, Secret Service and Hipsley's State Department force all carry .38s. Revolvers are used instead of automatics because the automatic has a habit of jamming at times.

Russia is known to have perfected ways of compressing great lethal power into tiny firearms. In 1955, for instance, when Soviet espionage agent Kikolai Khoklov reneged on an assassination assignment in West Germany and defected to American officials, he was armed with a Soviet-built gun resembling a pack of cigarettes.

Hipsley said Khrushchev's strongarm men made no agreement to give up their firearms. But they did agree, he said, that primary responsible for tour security in this country rests with Americans.

This means that if any shooting is necessary, the Russians would hold their fire and let the Americans act first. Such an agreement is customary on state visits to ensure that agents of two countries don't start firing at once, perhaps setting up disastrous crossfire.

One of Khrushchev's own bodyguards rides with him when he travels by automobile and Hipsley's men follow directly behind. Another automobile is provided for other Soviet agents.

Hipsley, 46 years old, an auburn-haired giant who weighs 240 and wears hornrims and a mustache, heads a crack security detail whose total size is secret.

The number of Soviet bodyguards with Khrushchev is six. Three of them have been described as major wheels in the Soviet security setup. These three are:

Vladimir P. Burdin, 37, who speaks fluent English, dresses like an American movie star and is rumored to be chief of the American section of the Soviet Foreign Intelligence Directorate.

Maj. Gen. Nikolai Zakharov, 50, former deputy minister of foreign affairs in Latvia who has risen fast in security and intelligence ranks at the Kremlin. He helped map security plans for the Nixon trip to Russia.

Vasily F. Grubyakov, 48, said to have served as an intelligence officer in Turkey before World War II while posing as a Soviet embassy press officer. More recently he served with the Soviet mission to the United Nations.

Hipsley said he could not provide the names of the three others on Khrushchev's six-man protection squad.

Franklin D. Roosevelt had the longest administration of any U. S. president—12 years, 1 month and 8 days—and William Henry Harrison the shortest—dying one month after his inauguration.

17 Ohio Institutions Set $22 Million Improvements

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — If everything goes according to plan —though nobody really believes it will — about 22 million dollars' worth of improvements could be completed at 17 mental hygiene and correction institutions by Jan. 1.

There are 28 projects, involved, and the Mental Hygiene-Correction Department said today that seven might be finished this month.

Nobody in the department's construction planning and equipment section really likes to come out and say a certain project will be completed by a specific date. Neither do State Public Works Department officials, for that matter.

The improvements program is large scale and long range. There are a lot of people and varying conditions involved. It doesn't take much to get off schedule.

At the moment, three other projects are virtually complete but still unaccepted by the Mental Hygiene - Correction Department. One is a 520-bed structure for care of aged persons at Cincinnati's Longview State Hospital. Minor adjustments are being made, but delivery of new beds has been held up, apparently because of the steel strike.

Department acceptance of a reception and intensive therapy unit at Cambridge State Hospital and the facilities at Zaleski Youth Camp, awaits relatively minor adjustments, too.

Part of the power plant at Lebanon Correctional Institution, construction of additional floors at Cleveland Receiving Hospital, medical-surgical units at Orient State Institute, the razing of two cottages at Girls' Industrial School near Delaware, and a parking lot at Toledo State Hospital are set tentatively for completion by the end of this month.

Sometime in October, a 200-bed patient building at Hawthornden State Hospital (Macedonia), additional power plant and security facilities at Lebanon, site development for three buildings at Hawthornden, and a 100-bed psychiatric treatment hospital at the Juvenile Diagnostic Center in Columbus may be ready.

During November, it's hoped to complete piecemeal repairs at Mohican Youth Camp, a reception classification center addition and site improvements at the Juvenile Diagnostic Center, additional work at Lebanon; a 100-bed patient building at Hawthornden, a wing on Summit County Receiving Hospital, electrical and roofing work at Fairhill (East Cleveland) and reconstruction of a laundry building (plus an academic-activities building) at Girls' Industrial School.

December completion dates have been set tentatively for reception and treatment units at Hawthornden, Columbus and Longview (Jan. 1) State Hospitals, a food preparation-service unit at Massillon State Hospital, improvement of the pasteurizing plant at Orient, a receiving-training unit at Rollman Receiving Hospital, rehabilitation of a new wing at Woodside Receiving Hospital and a laundry building at the Juvenile Diagnostic Center.

If you can't swing that new linoleum right now, here's a quick, easy and happy solution.

Put on a coat of Glaxo plastic type coating. It has a glass like gloss, but not slippery. This will make old floor coverings last longer and add beauty. It's easy on budget problems and ends waxing. MILLIGANS.

4-H News

Applications are being accepted for the 1960 Columbiana County 4-H Steer Club.

Any 4-H or Future Farmer of America member is eligible and may join by submitting a steer application by Oct. 31, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in 4-H work. Steers must weigh 325-475 pounds during this period.

Interested persons may obtain their animals by one of three procedures:

Application may be made to the county steer committee by Oct. 1, requesting the committee to purchase an animal for them; an animal may be selected from the home beef herd, or an animal may be purchased from the breeder of the steer member's choice.

A dated weight and sale bill must accompany all applications for home owned or individually purchased steers. The application then must be forwarded to the Agricultural Extension Service office at Lisbon, where forms and further information may be obtained.

Schools Coal Contract Let

LISBON — The Industrial Mining Co. of Lisbon was awarded the contract to supply coal for the three Lisbon Schools on a bid of $6.10 per ton by the Board of Education Tuesday evening. There were three other bids but one was disqualified for being late.

Salaries of seven teachers were raised because of additional college credits and four others will receive a boost under the new foundation law which sets up a state minimum. This will cost the board $111 more for the last part of the term, effective Jan. 1.

The board signed a three - year maintenance agreement with the Victor Adding Machine Co. for $49.10 to repair office education equipment being used by the co-operative class.

Supt. Loren Early was authorized to attend the Ohio School Boards Association meeting in Cleveland Nov. 10-12. He will also participate in the program. Three or four teachers were authorized to attend the 12th annual English conference at Kent State University Oct. 16.

The board took under consideration a proposal to send two to the annual supervisors' workshop in Columbus Oct. 8-9.

Fifty more blinds will be installed in the six new rooms at Lincoln School at a cost of $275 by the Dorrence Furniture Co.

The superintendent was given permission to obtain continuing service status of teachers when they become eligible.

Mrs. Leo Hochmann and Mrs. Robert Robb were authorized to conduct adult art and typing classes as in the past.

The board said $298.16 was received for Lisbon High's participation in the football preview at East Liverpool Sept. 11.

The board was told school buses passed inspection but the State Highway Patrol advised that the No. 4 bus should be replaced for the next term.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 6, at 7:30 p. m.

Composer Claimed

VIENNA (AP) — Composer Josef Matthias Hauer, 77, theorist and author of a 12-tone technique of music, died Tuesday.

Rotary Guest Demonstrates Advances In Sound Research

Rotary Club members had their ears "tuned" to the latest developments in the reproduction of true sound during a program presented at Tuesday's meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

"Adventure In Sound," a 30-minute lecture-demonstration, was presented by Robert C. Clark of Cleveland, public activities supervisor for the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

Clark demonstrated by use of a tape recorder how Bell Telephone is developing reproduction of true sound through research. The recordings varied from Alexander Graham Bell's first telephone conversation in 1876 to a modern concert by a symphony orchestra heard through high-fidelity and stereophonic speakers.

Clark pointed out that distance is no longer a problem in transmitting sound but that quality is.

He compared the recording made on Bell's first crude instrument to the full-range of sound that can be reproduced with high-fidelity and two-speaker stereophonic instruments popular today.

Included in the tape recorder part of the program were broadcasts of the Hindenburg dirigible disaster, one of the first "juke boxes" and Bell's telephone call from New York to San Francisco in 1915 on the inventor's first telephone system.

Stereophonic sounds reproduced realistically were those of a concert hall symphony, the "woosh" of a screaming jet plane, a ping-pong game and a steam locomotive.

Clark, making his fourth visit to the club, has been with Ohio Bell for 31 years. Previous to entering the telephone business, he was in the sales field and employment work and then in the advertising departments of newspapers in Detroit, Akron and Canton.

He was introduced by C. Walter Ashbaugh, program chairman.

Charles Taylor, president, presided and called attention to the Rotary Institute planned Friday at Newton Falls. A representative of the Civic Music Association reminded the club that a membership campaign is under way.

Legislators To Be Consulted Further On Lobbying Probe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Legislative leaders will be consulted regarding further investigation of legislative lobbying activities, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle announced Tuesday.

A Franklin County grand jury recently indicted Robert E. Scott, coal mine lobbyist from Cambridge, on charges of failing to make proper expense reports.

The jury suggested a special grand jury might want to probe further. DiSalle said he would confer with both Democrat and Republican legislative leaders.

"If you call a special grand jury," he said, "at least you ought to have some reasonable certainty that you will have something to submit to them."

DiSalle said Prosecutor Earl W. Allison had offered numerous leads but no concrete evidence of wrongdoing on the part of lobbyists to influence legislation in the Ohio General Assembly.

DiSalle also announced it will be Monday before he reaches a decision on whether to call a special election in the Sixth Congressional District.

The announcement followed an opinion from Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy ruling it is discretionary whether an election should be called for a successor to the late U.S. Rep. James G. Polk, a Democrat.

Since the special election, coinciding with Nov. 3 elections, could cost nearly $64,000, DiSalle indicated he might wait until 1960.

The interim congressman would serve only until Jan. 3, 1961, when regular congressmen start new terms. The Sixth District is composed of Pickaway, Fayette, Ross, Highland, Pike, Clermont, Brown, Adams and Scioto counties.

Also in his news conference Tuesday, DiSalle said he had received a letter urging Ohio make it a criminal offense to dope horses. The letter was from Edward Ginsberg, secretary of the Thistledown Jockey Club, Cleveland. DiSalle, who endorsed the proposal, said a jail term would discourage the doping practice.

Workers Turn Down Trailer Firm's Offer

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Contract terms offered by the Fruehauf Trailer Co. have been rejected by workers at the firm's Avon Lake plant.

After rejecting the pact at a special meeting here Tuesday the members of Local 925, Allied Industrial Workers of America, authorized their negotiators to call a strike if no settlement is reached by midnight Thursday.

Joe V. Brown, president of the 1,600-member union, said the offer was "substantially the old contract with less benefits."

He said the company refused to offer a wage increase "until other issues are cleared up." The company proposal would have eliminated full-time union representation with the plant, he added.

He said the company also proposed the elimination of overtime.

2 Escape With $32

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two men escaped with $32 from a safe Tuesday night after overpowering three guards and a visitor at Public Hall. Police said the robbers overlooked $2,100 that was in a small compartment of the safe. The men pulled the robbery while all attention was focused nearby at Municipal Stadium where the Indians were playing a big baseball game.

Roomer Is Held In Fatal Stabbing In Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A 47-year-old man was stabbed fatally at his home here Tuesday night and a roomer at his house was held without charge as his alleged assailant.

Neighbors found the victim, James Daley, 47, lying in his back yard shortly after the stabbing. Police said he had stumbled and dragged himself into the yard from an upstairs bedroom, where he was attacked.

The roomer, identified by police as Joseph R. Nietupski, 39, was arrested about two blocks from the scene of the killing. Police said he told them Daley took a swing at him with a paring knife and fell to the floor, landing on the weapon.

However, Coroner David A. Belinky ruled homicide. He said death was caused by a stab wound in the heart.

Three pastors officiated for the marriage of Miss Charlotte Van Den Handel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Van Den Handel of Hubbard, to William Edwin Maloney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Maloney, 411 Vine St., Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church of Youngstown.

The double - ring candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. Albert L. Linder, chaplain of Youngstown University; the Rev. Warner E. Holmgren, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church of Youngstown, and the Rev. Elwood L. Hauser, pastor of the church where the vows were exchanged.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length dress of white lace. An Eton jacket was worn over the fitted-bodice fashioned with an empire waistline. Her circular elusive veil was held in place by a lace headband. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and stephanotis. Pearl earrings and white gloves completed her attire.

Miss Margaret E. Maloney, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length dress of blue taffeta, styled with a square neckline. A circular veil was attached to her matching Dior bow. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink roses.

Cornelius Van Den Handel II of Canton, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Bert Smith of East Liverpool and Albert Linder Jr. of Youngstown.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. A miniature bridal couple topped the three - tier cake which centered the buffet table.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of Youngstown University and is teaching in Hubbard High School.

Marjorie Taylor Is Bride In Ceremonies At Industry

Miss Marjorie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor of Industry, became the bride of Norman LeFebvre, son of Mr. and Mrs. James LeFebvre, in the Industry Evangelical United Brethren Church at an evening ceremony Sept. 19 performed by the Rev. David Gill.

The single-ring rites were read before an altar banked with ferns and white blossoms.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor - length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The tight, fitted bodice and basque waist was accented by a square scalloped neckline and long, pointed sleeves. Nylon tulle formed the bouffant skirt, dotted with lace appliques, pearls and sequins.

A wreath of nylon tulle held her fingertip veil of silk illusion.

White carnations, ivy and stephoniotis formed her cascade bouquet. All the familiar traditions were observed.

Miss Betsy Dye of Industry was maid of honor; Miss Anna Marie Frazier of Beaver and Miss Barbara Woods of Ellwood City, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids, and Miss Patty Ann Gais of Industry was flower girl.

Mrs. Taylor made the attendants' gowns. They were of nylon chiffon with a scooped neckline of gathered puffs of nylon. The fitted bodice accented the very full skirts. The hemline of the top skirt of chiffon was gathered into scallops over a second skirt of chiffon. Picture hats and mitts of matching material completed their outfits.

Pastel colors of pink, blue, yellow and mint green net were placed in the Colonial bouquets of white carnations to match the colors of the gowns.

Richard Jones of Ellood City was best man. Richard LeFebvre, brother of the bridegroom, and Chester Summer of Industry served as ushers. Rodney LeFebvre, the bridegroom's nephew, was ring bearer.

A reception for 400 guests was held in the Croation Hall in Midland following the ceremony.

A four-tiered wedding cake centered the bridal table.

Mrs. William Kazee, Mrs. Joseph Gais, Mrs. Elmer Cain Jr., Miss Marth Mercer and Mrs. William Dawson, all of Industry, and Mrs. Roy Kramer of Uniontown were aides.

Mr. and Mrs. LeFebvre are honeymooning in Miami, Fla.

Word Games Help Make Learning Fun

Some while ago I advised that when you help your child, in the first grade, to learn the names of the different letters of the alphabet, you should dwell first on the consonants. They are easier to learn than are the vowels. With but few exceptions, each consonant has only one sound whereas each vowel has several different sounds. Besides, most words begin with a consonant. Here's some good home fun. Draw or cut from old magazines or newspapers groups of pictures of things whose names begin with the same letter and sound — car, cat, cane, coat; bug, bag, box, bird; pail, pig, pan, pen.

By Garry Meyers

LET THE child paste these pictures on a page, one group to the page. Then have him name the pictures in each group and listen for the beginning sound of each name.

This is the kind of a thing a youngster may like to do even before beginning school. It could give him a total of many hours of useful fun at finding such groups of pictures, cutting them out and pasting them on a sheet of paper or page of a scrapbook.

After the child, say in the first grade, has learned his letters, you should type or print under each picture its name. Then as he associates each name - word with its picture he can be let to see the letter at the beginning of each word in its group and to listen for its sound as he says the word.

—:—

AFTER THE child has had much practice with pictured words, each of whose beginning sound is that of only a single consonant like c, b, p, introduce him to pictured words beginning with a sound made by two or more letters together—sled, skate, broom.

Help him find groups of pictured words to cut out and paste on a sheet of paper, one group to the page.

Here are some samples: Tractor, train, trap, trunk; bridge, bridle, brush, broom; stool, stork, stove, star; crane, crib, crow, crab.

After he has practiced on groups like these, of pictured words, lead him on to say aloud groups of words not pictured but beginning with sounds made of two or more letters: trip, try, trick. This he would do best after practicing on the pictured group of tractor, train, trunk.

—:—

IN LIKE manner practice him on saying non-pictured words he sees following each other grouping of pictured words.

Almost any parent is smart enough to direct this kind of home fun with phonics. Such practice may also help the child of the third or higher grade who has trouble with sounds in words. And no matter what the teacher's methods are this should not hinder but help any child.

My bulletins, "Home Fun with Phonics" and "Helping Child at Home in Early Steps of Reading," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Indictment Dismissed; Words Not Captialized

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—U.S. Dist. Judge Carl A. Hatch has dismissed a grand jury indictment against an Albuquerque woman because three words in the document were not capitalized.

The federal grand jury indictment charged that Mrs. Dorothy Ann Lloyd, 28, embezzled $3,053 during 1958 from a nursery school and kindergarten.

Hatch ruled in favor of defense attorneys who argued the indictment was faulty because first letters in the words "nursery school" and "kindergarten" were not capitalized.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Joseph Ryan said Tuesday the case would be presented to another grand jury.

Ohio Man Indicted On 3 Counts Of Murder

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Columbus man was indicted on three counts of first-degree murder by the Franklin County grand jury Tuesday.

William Samuels, 48, was indicted in the Aug. 5 shotgun slaying of his wife Virginia, 39, and her aunt and uncle Charles and Sally King, both 47. Prosecutor Ed Roth said all were slain in the King home and that Samuels had tried to take his own life.

The jury also indicted Howard W. Johnson, 48, of Columbus, for first-degree murder in the slaying of his ex-wife Mattye, 34. Roth said the shooting July 15 at the woman's home followed an argument.

Mrs. Beatrice E. Stinson, 31, was indicted for first - degree manslaughter in the Aug. 23 stabbing of John L. Fisher, 37, at her Columbus home.

Hammondsville PTA To Seek Safer School Bus Operations

HAMMONDSVILLE — The Parent-Teacher Association Monday night named a three - member committee to discuss with the Stanton Local Board of Education suggestions for eliminating what the association considers two hazards in school bus operations.

Thirty-one attended the session held in the elementary building.

The committee, headed by Clyde Crook, plans to confer with the board in October.

The group wishes to eliminate a standard practice of the Pine Grove bus in using Route 213 as a turn-around site after pupils from Pine Grove are delivered in Hammondsville so the vehicle can continue to Stanton High School in Irondale.

Suggestions discussed by the PTA included erection of warning blinker lights and construction of a roadway around the elementary school that the Pine Grove bus could use and thus not have to turn around on Route 213.

The second hazard exists in that the same bus must negotiate a "hairpin" curve off Route 213 to reach the Pine Grove road. Fog makes the two operations of the school bus extremely dangerous on occasion, the group believes.

In other business conducted by Mrs. Geraldine Burton, president, purchase of reading circle books was adopted as a yearly project. A sum of $30 was donated to get the reading circle underway in the elementary school.

The program featured Indian dances by Boy Scouts from Troop 19 of Wellsville, directed by Jack Glover, a scoutmaster. The scouts presented "Thunderbird" souvenirs attached to lanyards to Mrs. Burton and Mrs. Eva Parsons, program chairman. Refreshments were served. The attendance banner was won by Mrs. Lena Crook's first and second grades.

The next meeting will be Oct. 19 at 7:30 p. m. in the school, Mrs. Evelyn Householder, secretary, reported.

Bohlen Talked With Russians Long Before Khrushchev Era

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen, soon to become a top Washington adviser on the Soviet Union, was talking back to the Soviets long before the era of Khrushchev diplomacy.

Once back in 1946, Alexander Bogomolov, then Soviet ambassador to Paris, stopped Bohlen in the hall during a foreign ministers meeting in the French capital.

"I thought you Americans were traders," said Bogomolov, referring to discussions about the Italian-Yugoslav frontier.

"We are traders," replied Bohlen in his usual calm tone.

"We will trade dollars and we will trade goods. But we will not trade human beings."

For Bohlen, this was just one more incident in a lifelong career of dealing with the Soviets. His diplomatic record as a Soviet specialist cannot be matched among U.S. Foreign Service officers except perhaps by George F. Kennan, now retired.

Now 55 and eligible for retirement after 30 years in the Foreign Service, Bohlen is returning from a 2½-year assignment as ambassador to Manila to become a special assistant to Secretary of State Christian A. Herter on Soviet affairs.

President Eisenhower, one of Bohlen's boosters, may take the personable diplomat along on the President's trip to the U.S.S.R. this fall.

Bohlen has spent nearly one-third of his long diplomatic career in the U.S.S.R. He first joined the Moscow Embassy staff in 1934, shortly after this country recognized the Communist regime.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Patrolman Charles L. Gellenbeck may lose his job because he showed his teeth to Police Chief Stanley Schrotel.

Schrotel said Gellenbeck approached him last week and happily displayed new dentures.

The chief said he smelled alcohol on the patrolman's breath and ordered a chemical test.

O. E. Hamilton, city safety director, recommended at a hearing Tuesday that Gellenbeck be fired on department charges of being under the influence of alcohol when on duty.

How To Get The Best Education

Excite Your Youngsters To Learn, And Education Fight Is Half Won

This is the fourteenth of 15 articles, condensed from the book, "How To Get the Best Education for Your Child," written by the former education editor of the New York Times and his wife, an educator herself.

By DR. BENJAMIN FINE and LILLIAN FINE

The study period: New vistas are opened up.

The excitement of learning must be transferred to the child from the teacher or parent.

You and his teachers hold the child's educational life in your hands. Learning goes far beyond memorization or homework. The child must want to learn, must see in education something of life and zest.

The teacher's work is easy if he can motivate pupils. The instructor who feels enthusiasm, who enjoys putting on a good show, "hamming it up," often impels students to go on reading and searching to find what the excitement is about.

-:-

TO MOTIVATE A CHILD to learn you do not necessarily need beautiful buildings or elaborate equipment. What you really need is brains.

Several years ago, a carefully conducted study of three groups of grade school children showed the effectiveness of both praise and blame as incentives.

The first group's teacher praised the students generously. Over and over she told them what an outstanding group they were and how proud she felt to teach them.

The teacher of the second group continually scolded her pupils. She found fault with their work, making them do assignments over. She kept pupils after school and gave them many low marks.

The teacher of the third group neither praised nor scolded. She was careful to appear neutral and detached.

-:-

WHICH GROUP showd the greatest improvement after several weeks? The one that had received continued praise. And which showed the second greatest improvement? The group that had been scolded and nagged.

The study proved that many children would rather be scolded than ignored. And, of course, praise is more effective than blame with most people.

At present there is too much emphasis on marks. The incentive for learning is too often a simple "If you study hard you will get an A." But of what value is an A unless the student gets something more than that out of his course?

We believe that under ideal conditions, marks can and should be abolished. Why? Because too many children are interested only in grades, not in their work.

Of course, grades could be abolished only under more or less ideal conditions: 1. better-qualified teachers; 2. smaller classes 3. parent-teacher conferences to discuss a child's abilities; and 4. recognition by colleges that grades are a worthless method of judging students' abilities.

-:-

NO. 3 is particularly intriguing. As a parent, you can learn more about your child's progress from a conference with his teacher than you can by reading and signing his report card.

Wider use of aptitude tests may help teachers and parents motivate youngsters who are inclined to shirk the drudgery connected with education. These tests frequently show the direction in which an individual's real interests and talents incline.

Even without tests, parents and teachers can encourage any special abilities a youngster shows. Hobbies or talents will often lead a youngster to read and observe in ever-widening fields.

The boy or girl who decides fairly early the kind of work he or she prefers has a powerful incentive to study and concentrate. In such cases parents and teachers should make sure that the purposeful young man or woman will not neglect cultural subjects and fail to get the broad background of information and ideas a truly educated person needs.

-:-

WHAT ABOUT THE Russian school system? Is the Soviet getting ahead of us? Russian education is scarcely the unparalleled success it has been touted. In spite of all the talk about the proletariat and equal opportunity, it turns out that Russia, like other European nations, offers high education only to a small percentage of her youth.

Nevertheless, we can learn something from the Russian system.

Various official and unofficial commissions have studied the Soviet program and all have come up with this agreement: In the U.S.S.R., the children study more, take more difficult subjects and are more serious in their work than are our children.

There is no teacher shortage in Russia. Teachers are highly respected and comparatively well paid. Adult education is growing rapidly, and there is no shortage of funds. The school year is 210 days, compared with the 180-day average in the United States.

-:-

OUR SCHOOLS should remain open longer.

A 230-day school would mean that the 12-year-elementary-secondary program could be cut to 10 years. By adding another hour to the time spent in class each day, more time could be devoted to an "enrichment" program.

The majority of students, we are convinced, can finish the traditional 12 years in 10. And remember, such a cut could save your community millions of dollars a year!

Or, considering the special demands of our complex nuclear age, we might well consider a 12-year school system, but this one to be divided into a 4-4-4 pattern. The first four years would be elementary grades, the second four would take in the junior high. Grades 9 and 10 would be devoted to the high school courses, while grades 11 and 12 would be the first two years of college work.

PARENTS and school boards in America are beginning to ask, "What is a good school and what makes it?"

One member of a school board in Illinois decided to do some research on the question. He made up a list of 38 schools whose students had done outstandingly well in the National Merit Scholarship race. Then he queried the principals about the reasons for their schools' success.

As you might expect, the principals listed many reasons: The quality of their teachers, the educational level of the community, grouping of students according to ability. But over and over again one factor was mentioned: Hard work.

To raise our schools to or near the level represented by these 38 outstanding schools we probably should begin with the teachers. The average classroom teacher gets $4,500 a year; the average professor get $5,500. These salaries are not worthy of professional personnel. To get the best brains into the teaching profession we must pay accordingly.

-:-

WE CANNOT continue "business as usual," giving but a pittance of our national income for education.

We ought to spend at least twice as much as we do now on teachers' salaries, textbooks, educational research, audio-visual aids, and school libraries.

This does not mean we need to erect in every village an educational palace with a swimming pool, huge gymnasium and auditorium. Too many of these grandiose edifices have "new curtains and new furniture but the same old underpaid teachers."

Hashed Brown Potatoes Are Tasty

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

Short-order cooks are long on patience when they fry a batch of potatoes.

Ever sit in a diner, lolling on a high stool, and watch an artful counterman cook hashed browns on a griddle?

The potatoes turn out marked with the sign of perfection — a mouth - watering crisp brown crust.

Funny thing! The dish is so simple, but most home cooks don't use the necessary tricks.

—:—

OKAY, here are the experts' secrets.

First, use a heavy skilled or griddle. Like an old-fashioned black iron frying pan: a spider, your grandmothers called it.

Next, don't be in haste. Use moderate heat and give the potatoes time to form the crust that makes hashed brown potatoes deserve their name.

Finally, no stirring. If you agitate these potatoes, they never have a chance to acquire their rich tan.

Hashed - brown fanciers decree that the dish be made with boiled potatoes.

You can boil a fair number of potatoes and use half of them at once, then refrigerate the rest for hash-browning the next day.

BUT THE fanciers will let you have your way with one thing: you can chop helter-skelter, dice evenly or shred the potatoes. For this recipe, use a handy small appliance that comes with a special cone for shredding; because the boiled potatoes are cold, they go through easily. Be careful, also, not to overcook the spuds before shredding.

Hashed brown potatoes most often accompany eggs. But they are delightful with seafood—broiled scallops or lobster, skillet-cooked shrimp. Or bring a panful out to the patio when there is ham steak, beef sirloin, or lamb chops on the fire.

HASHED BROWN POTATOES

Ingredients: 1½ pounds long white potatoes (pared and firm-cooked), 1½ tablespoons finely grated onion (pulp and juice), ¼ cup diced pimiento, ½ medium-sized green pepper (minced), ½ teaspoon salt, pepper, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 tablespoons bacon drippings.

Method: Shred cold potatoes medium-fine; toss with onion, pimiento, green pepper, salt and pepper to taste. Heat butter and drippings in a 10-inch skillet over moderate heat. Add potato mixture, pressing down well with a pancake turner or wide spatula.

Cook until crisp and brown on the underside — about 20 minutes; do not stir. Cut into pie - shaped wedges and turn out, brown crust side up. Makes 6 servings.

Note: Green pepper may be omitted and 1 jar (4 ounces) pimiento used after draining and dicing.

The girl's father, Max, said he left the girl asleep in his car Tuesday afternoon while he went into a nearby mine. When he returned, the girl was gone.

More than 200 volunteers searched the hilly, wooded area without success Tuesday and the hunt was resumed at daylight today.

'Scandinavian' Open Sandwiches

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

It's too bad that attractively arranged food sometimes seems confined to topnotch restaurants and color photographs.

And yet the art of garnishing food can often give budget-minded family meals a lift.

"Don't bother with all that fancy stuff!" my father used to say when he thought my sisters and I were spending too much time fussing in the kitchen.

But I was always interested to note that he was the first to comment with pleasure on a colorful platter of say chops surrounded with baked tomatoes stuffed with green peas or a big bang out of a cake frosting that boasted seedless grapes meticulously arranged in an amusing design.

One of the most edifying of lunches is a platter of Scandinavian - style open sandwiches with their delightful garnishes that add as much to flavor as they do to looks.

To make them, open a can of salmon, drain and remove skin and bones. Mash the fish and mix with a little lemon and onion juice, adding mayonnaise, if you like. Spread slices of whole wheat or pumpernickel bread with the salmon paste.

Now go to work on the toppings, being as economical or as lavish as you like. Here are suggestions:

1.—Cross from corner-to-corner an overlpping line of stuffed olive slices; top with cheddar cheese heart.

2.—Lay on two dashing round egg slices; spread the yolk with red caviar and add a slash of scallion.

3.—Pile in center: green leaf, tomato slice and cottage cheese.

4.—With half - circle radish slices make a scalloped border all around the edge; arrange a flower of sweet gherkin slices in center.

5.—Arrange half-size of tomato and slices of cucumber; dot with a parsley posy.

6.—Arrange three spears of marinated asparagus; add a swirl of pimiento.

Commissioners, Rural Group To Air Sewers

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners will meet tonight with Knox Township residents to determine their reaction to a sanitary sewer extension proposed by the city of Alliance.

R. Max Gard, chairman of the commissioners, said the session will be held at 8 in the council chambers of the Alliance City Hall.

Plans were presented to officials of Stark, Columbiana and Mahoning Counties last month by officials of Alliance, which is building a new sewage disposal plant.

Estimated cost of the extension is $1,075,800, of which Stark would pay $527,800, Mahoning $341,500, Columbiana $153,600 and Alliance $52,900.

The enlarged sewage system would serve an estimated 634 acres in Knox Township, commissioners said.

Fire

broke through as he walked out on to the dump about 5 p. m. yesterday. Firemen said the brush had burned back under the edges, leaving a top crust which appeared safe.

The family said the boy crawled back to safety by himself. He then walked back through the cemetery toward Lisbon St., halting long enough to take off his shoes and douse his feet with cold water from a faucet in the cemetery. The boy then walked to a nearby store where a man took him to the hospital.

His parents said he had been stopping at the dump each night as he made his rounds on a newspaper route. They said his shoes were not burned badly but that his sox were burned to a crisp. The hot ashes apparently fell inside the shoes and the leather held the heat.

When notified of the incident, Chief Ed Emmerling of the Liverpool Township West volunteer department at LaCroft issued orders that the fire be completely quelled.

The Glenmoor volunteer department and the Civil Defense were called to aid.

A large "deck gun" nozzle from Glenmoor was utilized. The special nozzle creates a high-pressure stream of water which bored holes into the brush so thousands of gallons of water could be poured into the burning mass.

The fire started Friday, apparently by spontaneous combustion, and had been burning and smouldering since. Four departments battled the blaze several hours Friday afternoon before it was decided to allow it to burn itself out.

The dump consists of tree limbs, logs and wood chips dumped by trimmers clearing rights-of-way for the local utility companies.

Glenmoor responded with 26 men, Liverpool West had 20 men and Civil Defense sent 9 firemen, 4 policemen and the rescue squad. Other CD men remained on standby at the Glenmoor station to cover the area in case of another fire.

Firemen said when water was poured onto the blaze Friday, it just soaked the top of the dump, allowing the fill beneath to continue burning. It had burned back underneath the edge 3 to 4 feet in a 50 foot square area, firemen said.

This edge was broken down with the deck gun and then the underneath was soaked. Some 2,200 feet of hose was laid. The CD rescue squad set up portable light units to illuminate the area. The CD police aided in directing traffic. Two pumper trucks were utilized to create the high pressure and carry the water from a city hydrant.

Both Chief Emmerling and Chief Kenneth Mills of Glenmoor directed thanks to the East Liverpool police department for its help.

Khrushchev

gathered behind barricades applauded lightly as Khrushchev and his party left their hotel.

The Soviet Premier had fortified himself with a substantial breakfast of fruit juice, poached trout, blintzes—a sort of pancake—with melba sauce, roast loin of veal, vegetables, sliced cucumbers, whole petite tomatoes, and bread.

Khrushchev's demeanor Tuesday night at a civic dinner in his honor and his facial expression reflected happiness at his Iowa reception, almost to the point of being benign.

But for the first time, Khrushchev did no off-the-cuff speaking. And for the first time, he did not even read his own speech. The interpreter did it for him, in English. As Khrushchev stood by listening, his eyes closed occasionally as if from deep fatigue. He seemed pale.

As plans went forward to receive the Soviet leader at the Roswell Garst farm near Coon Rapids today, Khrushchev's aides were understood to be trying to dissuade him from trying to pack in too much activity.

A change in schedule had been suggested so that he could get out early and see more details of Iowa farm life before leaving later in the day for Iowa State University at Ames.

Organ Dedication Set By Palestine Church

EAST PALESTINE — Dedication of a new Thomas electronic organ will be held at the Church of the Nazarene Sunday morning at 11.

Union Protest Group Awaits Board Ruling

A committee seeking a referendum on IBOP plans to erect a new headquarters building on Route 7 near Beaver Local School decided Tuesday night to mark time until the union's Executive Board meets in October to rule on a protest over alleged efforts to frustrate a vote of the trade.

Meeting in Council Chamber at City Hall, the referendum committee acted after hearing a letter from Charles F. Jordan, IBOP sercretary - treasurer, in which he said plans for the building will "be held in abeyance pending determination of the issue."

The letter explained the Executive Board will not meet in September because some of the members are attending the AFL-CIO convention in San Francisco.

The committee had protested that union officials declined to allow publication in the Potters Herald, the IBOP's official newspaper, of notices of special meetings called by local unions to consider resolutions asking a referendum on the building plans. That frustrated plans to seek a vote of the trade because locals cannot call meetings to consider such resolutions without giving prior notice in the union newspaper, the committee charged.

At its first general meeting Sept. 2, the committee decided to follow the steps prescribed in the union's constitution in such cases by sending a protest to the Executive Board over the alleged refusal to publish the meeting notices in the newspaper. The protest committee's letter set a deadline of Sept. 21 for the reply from IBOP officials. Last night's meeting followed.

In the next step, the IBOP executive board will rule on the committee's protest.

'No Progress,' USW Chief Says Of Talks

NEW YORK (AP) — United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald said today there has been "absolutely no progress" made during almost two weeks of subcommittee bargaining on local issues in the nationwide steel strike.

McDonald said members of the 12 union subcommittees meeting with subcommittees of the nation's largest steel firms accused the industry negotiators of "arrogant adamancy."

McDonald spoke to newsmen as he was going into another joint top level bargaining session with industry negotiators seeking a solution to the 71-day-old steel shutdown.

Council At Midland To Get Planning Report

Except for transportation and thoroughfares, all other phases of Midland's comprehensive plan for borough improvement, have been completed, Dr. Zanvel Sigal, Planning Commission chairman, said following a special meeting Tuesday evening.

Jack Wilson, a representative of Morris Knowles, Inc., Pittsburgh planning engineers, was present. He is expected to give Council a report tonight at 8. Completion is expected by November.

Kostyshak explained his men are trying "to eliminate the worst spots in existing roads while at the same time planning new roads."

Due to a shortage of funds, the Highway Department will slow construction of new roads next year, but planning for additional highway improvements will continue, he said.

After that, the highway department's funds are expected to increase as revenue from taxes levied this year begins to flow into the state's treasury, he said.

Atty. Francis H. Lang, chairman of the association, and E. R. Chandler, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, attended from East Liverpool. Columbiana County also was represented by A. P. Morris of Salem, head of the Columbiana County Auto Club, and Ron Leigh, secretary of the Salem Chamber.

Wellsville Repairs Sewage Lift Pump

Work was launched today on the repair and replacement of defective lift station pumps in Wellsville's new sewage treatment system.

The pumps proved defective and broke down after about three months operation. Representatives of the Fairbanks-Morse Pump Co. and the H. & H. F. Hosea Co. of Cincinnati, general contractor on the system, were inspecting the facilities this morning.

The pump at 21st St. has been out of operation over a month and raw sewage is being dumped into the Ohio River. An improvised chlorinating system had to be used to keep down the stench at the site.

Mayor William J. Shoub said the pumps were guaranteed and there will be no cost to the city other than the inconvenience.

Get Your Gas Furnace Ready For Winter NOW!

Now — while the weather is mild — is the time to make sure your Gas furnace is in tip-top working order. By calling your heating contractor or dealer early, you avoid the rush for service when cold weather strikes . . . assure your family they'll have heat when they need it.

And, you protect your furnace. Like anything mechanical, your Gas heating equipment will last longer and give better service if you give it proper care. Periodic check-ups insure continuous, efficient, economical operation of your Gas heating plant.

Make arrangements now to have your heating dealer clean your furnace . . . check burners and pilot light . . . inspect vents and flues for stoppages . . . replace clogged, dirty filters if you have a forced-air system. The cost for these important services is low, and you'll be glad later that you acted early to put your furnace in shape for better service all winter long.

Now is the time, too, to join our Budget Heating Plan.
Ask about this helpful plan which lets you spread your winter heating bills evenly over 10 months, starting in October.

Incentive–Bet The Boss

Hal Tells How To Reduce

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Can you lose up to 40 pounds in 90 days without using drugs?

Can you do it without feeling starved, without losing your strength or sense of humor, without feeling sorry for yourself?

You can indeed. You're listening to an ex-fatty who just did it.

All you need is the right incentive. A fat man with the right incentive can do anything. I had a real good incentive.

The truth was I weighed a record 217 pounds.

One of my bosses remarked scornfully:

"Fat men have no willpower. Fifty bucks says you can't take off 30 pounds in 90 days."

That did it! I had my incentive, an incentive greater than personal vanity.

"You've got a bet," I told the boss.

There is no secret about losing weight. I went to a good old-fashioned doctor.

Handing me a standard diet, he said: "Follow this. Exercise sensibly. Take a couple of vitamin pills a day. Cut your liquor intake to two highballs a day, but don't take any medicines. You don't need them."

"Well, Doc," I said, "two drinks a day is taking medicine—for it sure ain't drinking."

So I went on the wagon altogether, and within three days was enjoying the taste of water—straight.

The diet was simplicity itself. I cut out all sweet desserts.

I all but cut out butter, corn, beans—except string beans—and had potatoes just once a week. I limited myself to a piece of rye or whole wheat bread a day. If I ate a sandwich for lunch, the next day I did without bread.

I cut my usual portions in half, and concentrated on lean meat, eggs, cottage cheese and filled up on plenty of raw and cooked green and yellow vegetables.

Mild exercise is the best way to cure your restlessness when you're on a diet—or any other time. I bowled and swam some, but walking is the ideal exercise in the city.

The first week I walked a mile a day, then gradually stepped it up. On weekends I got up to seven or eight miles. Solitary walking can be a great joy. You learn the trees, the store window sights and the people in your town as you can in no other way. One tip: In the city be sure to wear rubber-heeled shoes.

Strangely, I felt exhilarated rather than depressed most of the time. Only once did I break my diet to eat a chocolate sundae. I felt as guilty as if I'd robbed the church poor box, and never was tempted again.

The pounds came off in fits and spurts—six the first week, none the next, some weeks 2 to 5. On the 90th day I had a surgeon friend ready to amputate a leg if necessary—anything to keep from losing to the boss!

But the scales said 177 pounds. I had taken off not 30 pounds, but about 40. The boss forked over a $50 bill.

There's one other reward. They told me that if I slimmed down I'd have the girls in the office standing in line. I do, too. But all they whisper in my ears is: "What's your secret, skinny? I'd like to lose a little myself."

The incentive is the secret. Bet the boss!

Library Displays One-Man Show Of 19 Paintings

A "one-man show" of 19 paintings by Mitchell Smith, East Liverpool High School art instructor, is on display at Carnegie Public Library through Sept. 30.

Smith studied at the Art Students League in New York City and received a bachelor of fine arts degree from the University of Georgia. He was awarded his master's degree in 1956 at Kent State University where he also served as an assistant in the art department.

Smith's work has been exhibited in numerous cities, including High Museum in Atlanta, May Show in Cleveland, Butler Museum in Youngstown and Dayton and Akron museums.

In his current display, a "self portrait" painted in 1955 is featured in the lobby. A landscape based on the "Cleveland Waterfront" and four formal portraits of women also are included.

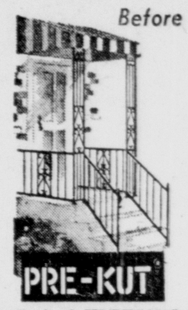

His favorite medium is abstract studies in oil. Among the most interesting are "Two Lovers," "Waterfall," "Domestic Duo" and "Culinary Capers."

The library is open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. daily except Saturday when it closes at 6 p. m.

Apple Sauce Flavors Individual Meat Loaves

Women everywhere appreciate the convenience, the flavor and the nutrition they can expect from apple products.

Economy, as well as these three factors, is an important feature in the use of products made from apples.

A new way to use apples is Baked Apple Burgers, individual meat loaves flavored with apple sauce.

Baked Apple Burgers

½ cup minced onion
1 pound ground beef, chuck
½ pound ground lean pork
1½ teaspoons sage
1 tablespoon worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon salt
1½ cups canned apple sauce
1 cup dry bread crumbs

Combine onion, beef, pork, sage, Worcestershire sauce and salt; mix well. Add apple sauce and crumbs; mix well.

Pack into large greased muffin pans. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 30-40 minutes. Make 6 servings. Serve with seasoned rice, carrots and peas.

Family Lunch

Good nutritious quick bread is handy to have on hand.

Cream of tomato soup, crackers, stuffed egg salad with Romaine quick wheat germ nut bread, fruit, beverage.

GERM NUT BREAD

Ingredients: 1½ cups sifted flour, 2½ teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar, 1-3 cup pre-sweetened wheat germ, ½ cup chopped walnuts, 1 egg, ¾ cup milk, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine (melted).

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and brown sugar. Stir in the wheat germ and walnuts. Beat egg until thick and pale-colored; beat in milk; stir in melted butter. Stir in flour mixture just until dry ingredients are moistened.

Turn into buttered loaf pan (about 8 by 4 by 2½ inches). Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 45 to 50 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Run knife around sides of pan to loosen bread; turn out on wire rack to cool. The bread may be sliced shortly after cooling; but for very thin slices store in tightly covered container overnight.

City Asks Warden To Capture Dogs

The county dog warden's office at Lisbon has been asked to send a man to East Liverpool to round up stray dogs that have made a nuisance of themselves near several school buildings, police said today.

Complaints of roving dogs have been received from Westgate and St. Aloysius Parochial School, officers said.

In many cases the dogs follow youngsters to school and then wait outside to accompany their masters home, police said. The beginning of each new school term generally brings a series of complaints about dogs congregating outside the buildings, officers said.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

Memories And Hepsters

We old codgers whose memories go clear back to the '30s remember "Fibber McGee and Molly" as very funny, if not almost perfect radio comedy. It wasn't literature but it had the characteristic of a good folk story with Fibber as the guy who always gets in over his neck, his two cronies, Doc Gamble and Mayor La Trivia, as fine minor clowns, and Molly as the sensible antagonist.

John Crosby

Jim and Marian Jordan, who played Fibber and Molly, came from Chicago and so did Don Quinn who wrote it. Consequently the scripts had a warm Midwestern common sense about even the craziest of Fibber's misadventures.

I bring it all up now because the new Fibber and Molly are on film along with their home at 79 Wistful Vista and Teeny, the little girl next door and the hall closet, on NBC-TV.

-:-

BOB SWEENEY, who once did a comedy turn with Hal March, plays Fibber; Cathy Lewis, who was once Irma's friend Jane, plays Molly, and Hal Peary, who used to be Gildersleeve, plays Mayor La Trivia.

I'm happy all these nice and talented people have found work, but I must admit that it gives the TV version of Fibber and Molly a warmed-over look.

The first episode in which Fibber goes and buys the longest trailer you ever saw and gets outwitted at every turn, was funny and touching and heartwarming. I expect it will find many new admirers as well as a good many old ones.

Still, I must report there is a cheapening of values, a flattening out of comic exuberance and invention that, I suppose, was inevitable.

Seventy-nine Wistful Vista just isn't as nice an address on TV as it was on radio and Sweeney's pop-eyed, blackout type acting dampens the fun.

The comedy closet, which dumps all sorts of things over Fibber every time he openes the door, is one of the great comic devices of radio and mercifully they keep it off camera. But you can't keep the whole show off camera and that's the way it was originally designed.

-:-

TO PASS ON to other matters, I am indebted to "Johnny Staccato" for the word "commercialicism" which, I expect, will supplant the old "commercialism" as having a nastier and truer sound.

Jazz is very large on TV ever since the success of "Peter Gunn" and "77 Sunset Strip," and this is more of the same. "Johnny Staccato" (John Cassavetes) plays a jazz pianist who does private eye work on the side, an entirely unlikely combination that is gaining great favor on television.

Most of the people in "Johnny Staccato" start half their sentences with "Man" and interlard them strongly with such words as "Squaresville," "cats," and—well "commercialicism."

Hep talk has dug a large hole in TV and it's difficult to find any private eye who talks any other way.

On "Johnny Staccato" even the corpses are very hep. The last one, for example, called Staccato on the telephone just before becoming a corpse and said: "I'm on a new kick. I'm far out, man. Man, I'm really gone!" And then dropped dead of poison.

Murder, jazz, cigar smoke and hep talk — these are the principal ingredients. I must say you'll see some excellent acting by old pros like Eduardo Cianelli on this series but the mixture, otherwise, is as before.

-:-

IT'S A LITTLE LATE to be talking about "Miss America," but I've been brooding about this second win in a row for Mississippi, which is a larger issue than you think, Buster, and I have reached the conclusion that our Northern dolls are just over their heads with those Southern chicks.

For a number of years now I've been watching the "Miss America" finals, our greatest sporting event (next to "Miss Rheingold," of course), on TV.

Now that passions have cooled I can hazard the opinion that Lynda Lee Mead, well deserved the honor. Like last year's Miss Mary Ann Mobley, she came on strong with an act showing her many facets — she was an athlete, an intellectual, a housemaid and Cleopatra, all rolled into one judiciously shaped bundle.

But what won her accolade, I bet, was not her many-sidedness but a certain underlying femininity of approach that our Northern girls can't match or even comprehend.

Just as I doubt that we'll ever get the Davis Cup away from Australia for any length of time until our tennis players learn some fundamentals, I think our Northern girls, too, had better practice their ground strokes.

I'm awed by "Miss Pennsylvania," who showed one of her paintings, while playing a sonata she wrote on the flute. But the one thing she didn't exhibit is that she's a girl—and that's basic.

I think the first Northern girl to come on with a good sewing act could sweep the field. Put the flute away for the time being, girls, and practice your hemstitch.

2 Drivers Fined, Another Forfeits

Chief Discusses Fire Prevention For Kiwanis Club

Safety checks for possible fire hazards in homes were urged by Fire Chief Charles Bryan of East Liverpool in a talk on fire prevention at a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the City Hall auditorium.

Speaking in connection with national "Fire Prevention Week" Oct. 4-10, he described various fires which have occurred here and their causes.

He said fire prevention practices have reduced fire calls in East Liverpool from 425 annually to about 200 in the past 8 years.

Chief Bryan was introduced by Alvin Arner of East Liverpool, chairman of the safety committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Alvin (Pete) Arner, area chairman of the annual Community Fund campaign, requested members to volunteer assistance in the drive.

Dieters Must Cope With Nibbling

"I get hungry and have to nibble. A friend tells me that your Hunger Control Diet allows for pick - ups between meals."

Ida Jean Kain

Right. Call the plan purposeful piece-mealing. The object is to cut ahead of hunger and bring nibbling out into the open, so to speak. Many homemakers are unconscious nibblers. Almost without being aware of what they are doing, they eat a piece of candy, then another, a handful of peanuts, or a few cookies. This may continue off and on, all through the day . . . and evening.

Tasting is often another form of nibbling . . . and taste makes waist. Of course, a good cook seasons to taste, but check to see how much tasting you actually do during the meal preparation.

ONE HONEST gal challenged herself by putting a bowl on the stove. Everytime she was tempted to taste, she put the spoonful in the bowl. By the time dinner was ready, the bowl was full!

Here is another test: When you sit down to the meal, do you have a keen appetite? If not, then you have either been nibbling between meals or over - tasting while cooking. When you eat lightly at meals, it's hard to understand what is keeping your weight up!

It helps to be fully alert to what you actually eat between meals. Then, when you catch yourself reaching for something to eat, ask yourself pointedly, "Why am I eating now?"

Dr. Ruth Leverton in her excellent book, "Food Becomes You," explains that if you'll look behind the apparent reason for eating between meals, you may be surprised at some of your answers.

They'll be something like this: "I'm eating to put off doing something I don't want to do." "Something disagreeable has happened and eating will help me forget it." "Something wonderful has happened and I'm eating to celebrate." "I'm discouraged, and eating helps me feel better."

Dr. Leverton explains that eating so often and irregularly may be a sign that you are worried, lonesome, dissatisfied or just restless. When you know why, you're halfway home.

Now let's put some science in the piece - mealing. "Zero hour" for dieters is apt to be late afternoon, for that is when the blood sugar tends to fall. Some dieters also feel a let - down in the late morning. Evening eating is habit-substitute a non-nutritive beverage.

—:—

"THE HUNGER CONTROL diet allows for an energy pick - up in the mid - morning and again in the late afternoon. This plan prevents the all - gone feeling and saves the day and the diet.

On the diet score: There is a more effective carry - over of energy and better hunger control when a complete protein is included at each of the three meals. In scientific dieting, each meal is built around a protein food.

Send a long, stamped, self - addressed envelope for "Hunger Control Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests can not be answered.

Nixon-Rockefeller Ticket Seen GOP Best

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)— The Republican national chairman says a Nixon and Rockefeller ticket would be the best the Republicans could offer in 1960.

Chairman Thruston B. Morton, who is also U.S. senator from Kentucky, told a news conference here Tuesday, "I can't think of coupling two better fellows than those two."

Asked if he thought Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller would battle over the presidential nomination, Morton said, "I have no choice except to assume a contest."

Funds Urged To Help Fight 'Teen' Crime

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Thomas C. Hennings (D-Mo.), chairman of a Senate subcommittee which opens hearings on juvenile delinquency here today, says he hopes Congress will vote funds to help states fight teen-age crime.

Hennings said the hearings are designed to arouse the interest of Congress in the problem and not to emphasize New York City's summer siege of youth gang terror.

The two-day session here will launch a series of hearings in other cities. Hennings has not named the other cities yet, although he has mentioned recent teen-age gang killings and assaults in Washington, Philadelphia and Chicago.

Today's first witness is Mayor Robert F. Wagner, who has said New York City ranks 18th from the top among the nation's largest cities in the amount of major crimes committed by young people.

Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy and Ralph W. Whelan, city commissioner of youth services, are among eight other witnesses to be heard. Hennings said Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller hoped to attend.

Dedication Set Oct. 2

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A new building at the Agriculture Department's laboratories near Reynoldsburg, east of here, will be dedicated Oct. 2 in the presence of the governor and his entire cabinet. An open house is planned for the public.

Revenge Termed Youths' Reason In Church Bombing

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Revenge, not racial tension, prompted five white youths into bombing an empty Negro church here, police say.

The five, all 18 years old, were charged Tuesday with causing an explosion with intent to injure a person or property of another.

The True Way Church of God in Jesus Christ was bombed Monday night when a homemade gunpowder device was thrown through a window.

Police said the five got angry when a landlord refused to permit them to rent the basement of the church for use as a clubhouse.

Those in custody are Jeffrey Cordova and Joseph M. Dalakina, both Hillside; Daniel Casey, and Howard McAllister, both Newark, and Steve Parr, Bernardsville.

Said Elder Arthur Wilson, pastor: "This is just kids' doings."

Wreck Injuries Fatal

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—Deputies patrolling on Chamberlain Road near Grafton found Joseph Cameron Connor, 22, of Grafton pinned behind the steering wheel of his car Tuesday after it crashed into a tree. Connor died in a hospital several hours later.

Mrs. Mikesell and Mrs. Haydin won other prizes.

Mrs. Michael Selack, Mrs. Minnie Reed, Mrs. Paul Rice Jr. and Mrs. Popp formed the food committee, headed by Mrs. Richard Rice.

The 11th anniversary dinner will be held in Beaver Falls Oct. 8. Mrs. Mae Wolfe and Mrs. Popp are in charge of arrangements.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Last night our small child became violently ill. I asked my husband to go to the store for medicine which the doctor prescribed. His face fell and he moaned, "Something always happens when I want to go to the fights."

This is typical of him. When I was in a car accident last year and the doctor phoned my husband from the hospital, he was playing poker and he sent my brother. His excuse was the doctor said it was only a broken collarbone and since he was stuck $40 he thought he'd better stay in the game and make the hospital bill.

When my favorite aunt died, he went on a hunting trip and missed the funeral. I was ashamed to attend the funeral without him but I had no choice.

Am I too demanding, as he says, or is there something wrong with him?—BOTTOM OF THE LIST.

Dear Bottom of the List: Of course there's something wrong with him—he's immature and flees from responsibility.

You're not going to change the guy now, so accept the fact that you've got an additional child on your hands.

P.S.: Welcome to the sorority. Your club sisters are many.

Little Indians

Dear Ann: I'm having a family problem which requires an outsider's unbiased opinion. Can you help?

We took Mom and Dad in to live with us and were happy to have them since we are career people with a nice home and no children.

My older sister, whom Dad always called "the pretty one" (I was "the plain one"), ran away at 17 to get married. She moved to the other end of town because she didn't want to have anything to do with the folks.

Since the folks have been here she's been bringing her undisciplined tribe (she has 10 children) over here regularly.

They come when they're sure my husband and I won't be at home.

Something always gets broken. First it was a $30 figurine, next a door mirror, and last night the hi-fi.

Of course they can't afford to pay for the broken things. My husband says he never wants those kids in our house again. Sis says we pay too much attention to "material things." Mom and Dad say we are "breaking up the family." What do you say? THE PLAIN ONE.

Dear Plain One: I'd make it plenty plain they are not to come to your home unless you and your husband are there. Someone must police those kids and it's apparent their folks can't do it. Also, insist they pay for any damage done in the future and lay down the new ground rules on the very next visit.

Look And Learn

Dear Ann: I'm 16, not a raving beauty but not ugly either. I'm not popular with boys and can't figure out why.

A darling guy sat next to me in Spanish class all last year and I didn't know him a bit better the day school closed.

My girl friend has guys trailing after her constantly. Fellows start conversations with her in the halls and ask for help with school work, although she nearly flunked everything. I'm an A student yet no one asks me for help. Why does she succeed and where do I fail? —FLOP.

—:—

Dear Flop: Your girl friend has learned the secret of making boys feel comfortable in her presence. Watch her operate and ask her for clues. She'll be flattered and you may learn something.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

How Can I

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I most easily get the crumbs out of an electric toaster?

A. Shaking the toaster, of course, will get a good many of these crumbs out — but be sure you shake gently, so as not to break any of the filaments. A chicken feather is very handy for brushing the crumbs out of a "pop-up" toaster and, if used carefully, it won't damage the filaments.

Q. How can I prevent much of the usual warping, sagging or sticking of interior doors?

A. By using three hinges, instead of two, when hanging the door. The third hinge will align the door, balance its weight, and prolong its life.

Q. How can I avoid having woolen garments turn stiff and hard after washing?

A. By adding a few drops of glycerine or a pinch of borax to your wash water.

Fourth-class mail generally is called parcel post.

PUC Asks Proof After Salem Bus Complaint

The Public Utilities Commission at Columbus has told the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce that it will have to prove existing Greyhound bus service there is inadequate.

The Chamber protested Greyhound's discontinuing its morning run between Youngstown, Salem, East Liverpool and Wheeling.

If there is a large number of witnesses, the commission said in its letter, a hearing can be arranged in Salem. Otherwise, it said, such matters are usually heard in Columbus.

County Investigator Is Interested Viewer

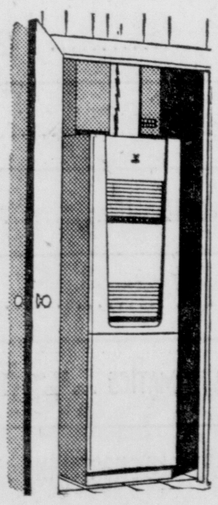

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — County investigator Sherman Wagoner was inside a garage chatting when a man entered and asked for a fire extinguisher, explaining a car outside was burning.

Wagoner walked out to watch the excitement. His walk increased to a run when he saw that the burning vehicle was his own. Damage was slight.

Tests Reflect Improvement In High School Student Work

Students enrolled in the college preparatory course at East Liverpool High School continue to do "quite well" and "some improvement" has been noted for those in the general and commercial courses, Principal George Hargraves said today.

The conclusions were reached by summarizing and comparing the results of an essential high school content battery test conducted last spring among all high school students with the results of a similar test held in 1958. The test covers mathematics, social studies, English and science.

General and commercial students are compared on national norms for students enrolled in those courses, while college prep students are compared with college prep norms, Hargraves explained.

The present Senior Class was tested as sophomores and juniors, with another test planned in the spring. The 1959 class received two tests.

Using the 50th percentile as a reference point for the average, college prep students scored well above the average in every area in both 1958 and 1959, Hargraves said.

Last year's seniors scored higher than the 1958 class, while the present seniors finished with better than the 1959 class in 3 of 4 areas. However, the 1961 class, now juniors, scored below the 1960 class in all 4 areas.

In general and commercial courses, students scored below average in 1958 and 1959 although seniors who finished school last June scored above the 1958 class in 3 of 4 fields, the principal continued.

The present Senior Class scored above the 1959 class in all 4 areas, indicating some improvement, he said.

In comparing the test results for 2 years for the 1959 college prep students, scores were better in mathematics, social studies and English as seniors but there was a drop in science, Hargraves said.

The 1960 college prep students showed some drop in social studies but remained relatively steady in the other 3 fields, he continued.

General and commercial students last year showed considerable improvement in 3 of 4 areas as seniors while the 1960 class showed a considerable boost in all 4 fields over their sophomore year.

Midland Teen Center To Be Open Saturdays

Beginning this week, the Midland Hi-Spot Youth Center will be open from 8:30 to 11:30 on Saturdays when Lincoln High School plays football games away on Friday evenings, Mrs. William Spisak, director, said.

Friday is the regular night for the center, which opens, following the home games, to members and guests. The center will be open two nights during the last week of October following the home game Oct. 30 and the Jack O'Lantern Ball Oct. 31, she said.

In navigation, tacking means sailing against the wind by zigzag changes of course.

Beaver Local Schools Check On Students' Immunizations

Polio, diphtheria and smallpox immunization records are being checked on all pupils in Grades 5 to 12 in Beaver Local Schools, and clinics will be held for other immunizations needed, George VanHorne, executive head, announced today in a summary of the district health program.

Physical examinations have been given to 272 first grade pupils with followups to be held, and immunizations have been given for smallpox and diphtheria through the first four grades of all schools—900 pupills, VanHorne said.

154,000 Bushels Expected

Apple Harvest Starts At Hillcrest

APPLE HARVEST TIME. With an estimated 154,000 bushels of apples expected, pickers working at the Hillcrest Farm back of Chester are out in full force to harvest the fruit before freezing weather arrives. Holding two "beauties" at left is John McMick of Youngstown, a former Wellsville resident. The champion picker of Hillcrest—Paul Amos of near Chester—is shown at the right. Amos picked 201 bushels in a single day in 1957, a record that remains unbroken. Hillcrest is the second largest apple producing farm in West Virginia. The farm covers 919 acres.

Harvesting of the annual apple crop of Hancock County's scenic Hillcrest Farm near Chester is in full swing and sale of the fruit to area customers is expected to begin this weekend.

Stripping of the farm's 18,000 trees began a week ago with some 75 workers and hundreds of cartons having been trucked to stores and processing centers throughout West Virginia.

—:—

A BUMPER crop of at least 154,000 bushels is expected. The farm's record is 164,956 bushels in 1955.

Pickers — carrying canvas baskets of one bushel capacity and lightweight aluminum ladders — dot the farm's 425-acre orchard and are earning a nationwide wage of 15 cents per bushel.

Many striking steelworkers are finding employment at Hillcrest during the six-week-long harvest period. The average picker earns about $12 daily, although several "veterans" have earned as high as $30 in a long, 10-hour day among the branches.

—:—

THE SPRAWLING, 919 - acre farm is owned by the family of the late C. A. Smith and is operated by Sam and Don McAvoy.

Rugh Hillcrest Farms, Inc., in the same vicinity is owned by Edward and Kenneth Rugh, who purchased it from the Smith estate. Rugh Hillcrest is a cattle farm.

Hillcrest is the second largest apple producing farm in West Virginia. The largest in the state — and also the world's largest — is owned by Sen. Robert C. Byrd in the Eastern Panhandle.

Seven varieties are being picked. They are Red Delicious — most popular eating variety — and Cortland, Jonathan, Willow-Twig, Golden Delicious, Grimes Golden and Roman Beauties.

—:—

A GOOD SHARE of the apple harvest is purchased by Tri-State Area residents although most is shipped to super - markets and processing centers. The processing centers — including a baby food distributor — slice, prepare and can the fruit as applesauce, pie filling and other products.

Cartons by the hundreds fill Hillcrest's elaborate packing plant located conveniently near the orchards. Apples are graded and packed in cellophane containers and cardboard cartons for shipment by a staff of workers. Other apples are packed and stored in a huge refrigerator room.

Other facilities on the farm include a parts department which houses repair equipment for packing machinery and the many trucks and vehicles used to operate the farm.

A STAFF of 26 workers live in rent - free homes on the farm and are employed the year-round for spraying the trees, cultivation and planting of new trees, or helping to care for about 100 head of cattle.

Yearling trees cost from $6 to $8 each and produce fruit 12 to 14 years after planting. Orchards are sprayed 14 times annually, McAvoy said. Sam McAvoy, the father, and Don act as a father-son management staff.

—:—

PICKERS are divided into five crews with each working under supervision of a foreman. Many women — some who earn a daily wage equal to the men — also work as pickers.

Paul Amos of Chester, R. D. 1, a picker for some 5 years at Hillcrest, holds the record of 201 for the most bushels picked in a single day.

Phone Cable System Links U.S., Europe

NEW YORK (AP) — A telephone call to Paris made history Tuesday.

The brief, chatty conversation among three men in New York and four in Paris marked the inauguration of the first telephone cable system to link North America directly to the European mainland.

Those doing the talking were American and European telephone officials.

A 40-million-dollar, 4,400 mile system, the cable extends from Nova Scotia across Cabot Strait and Newfoundland to Clarenville, Newfoundland, as a single cable.

From there a twin-cable system extends across the bottom of the Atlantic directly to Penmarch, France.

Telephone calls are relayed back and forth from New York to Nova Scotia by a radio relay system.

The two-year job of laying the cable was twice interrupted-once by huge ice fields off Newfoundland and again by a fire that swept one of two cableships, forcing her crew to abandon ship 600 miles west of the French coast.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Co. owns 64 per cent of the cable system. The remainder is owned jointly the French and German ministries of Posts and Telecommunications.

Mrs. Wanda Hanlon, president, conducted business. A donation was made to the Child Counseling Center. The group voted to join the Columbiana County PTA Council. New officers and committee chairmen were introduced.

The PTA discussed having the students pictures taken. Fund raising projects were discussed and referred to the ways and means committee headed by Mrs. Sarah Rose.

Don Collins was named to check the cost of blacktopping the lot at the rear of the school for a play area. Mrs. Dorothy Shepherd's second grade won the attendance banner with 18 parents present.

Lunch was served by the social committee headed by Mrs. Mildred Elliott.

Eastern Ohio Labor Group To Meet Here

Scheduled to plan "the battle for union survival" in the face of new federal laws and a continuing move to enact so-called "right-to-work" statutes, representatives of labor organizations in 5 Eastern Ohio counties are to meet Sunday at 2 p. m., in the IBOP Hall.

The organization, called United Organized Labor of Eastern Ohio, covers Columbiana, Belmont, Carroll, Harrison and Jefferson Counties. Invitations have been mailed to all labor organizations in the five counties asking them to send representatives to the meeting here, according to Joseph A. Winters of East Liverpool, a member of the organization's steering committee.

The letter of invitation refers to "the passage of the union-busting Landrum-Griffin Bill by both the House and the Senate."

Explaining the reason for the meeting, it adds: "The National Right-to-Work Committee did not disband after the last election. It is even now soliciting funds to carry on its work. As a part of what is called a 'program of education,' it is sending propaganda material to our high school students.

"In view of this acceleration of activities on the part of the anti-labor forces, we cannot over emphasize the necessity of each local union of every labor organization joining the battle for union survival by sending a representative to the meeting."

White Sox Clinch First American League Flag In 40 Years

7 District Teams To Seek First Victories Of Grid Season

Wynn Beats Tribe 4-2 For 21st Win

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The White Sox did it.

They did it like champs, clinching that long-awaited American League pennant in their final meeting with the one club that could snatch it from them.

They did it with a 4-2 victory over the second-place Indians at Cleveland Tuesday night, hauling in Chicago's first AL flag since 1919. They did it not with their magic singles, but with power—a pair of scoring doubles by Luis Aparicio and Billy Goodman, and successive sixth-inning home runs by Al Smith and Jim Rivera.

They did it with pitching and defense. Early Wynn, the old man the Injuns didn't want, won his 21st, getting relief help from young Bob Shaw, the right-hander Detroit didn't want, and Gerry Staley, the reliever nobody wanted.

Staley, like Wynn a 39-year-old right-hander, wrapped it up, making his 65th trip from the bullpen this season in the ninth inning with one out and the bases loaded. With one pitch it was all over.

Vic Power swung at that first pitch of Staley's, Aparicio gobbled it up at short, stepped on second and threw to first for the Sox' fourth doubleplay, the doubleplay that ended 40 years of waiting.

The victory gave the White Sox a 4½-game lead over the Indians, who have but four games to play. The Sox have three left—before playing the opening game of the World Series in Chicago's Comiskey Park a week from today.

In the National League Milwaukee's surging Braves, driving for a third straight flag, jumped into a one-game lead with a 5-3 victory at Pittsburgh. Los Angeles tumbled out of a first-place tie with an 11-10 loss at St. Louis. Third-place San Francisco fell two games behind, losing 5-4 to the Cubs at Chicago. Each of the contenders has four games left.

The White Sox, who had lost two in a row as their pennant push sputtered, whipped the Indians 15-7 for the season. This one climaxed a drive that began with a four-game sweep at Cleveland in late August. They won nine of the 11 games they played at the Indians' park.

In the other AL games, New York whipped Washington 8-4, Detroit beat Kansas City 6-4 and Boston defeated Baltimore 4-3. Philadelphia swept a twi-night pair from Cincinnati, 3-1 and 3-2, in the other NL action.

Club's Proposal For Night Grid Game Turned Down

Future football games between East Junior High School and Westgate Junior High will continue to be played in the afternoon hours and not under the lights.

That is the verdict of principals and coaches of the two schools involved arising from the Blue and White Nonpareil Club's proposal to have the two rivals meet at night this fall.

Principal George Hargraves of ELHS told the club Tuesday night that the powers that be are not interested in switching the game from afternoon to night for primarily two reasons.

The first listed in an hour-long discussion of the proposal was that East would be at a frank disadvantage in battling the 3 to 1 manpower status of Westgate, and the second was that a night contest might find the youngsters being submitted to uncalled for "mental pressures" that might lead to overemphasis of football.

The club proposed the night attraction with the idea in mind of drawing a larger turnout of adult fans, some of whom are unable to view the afternoon clashes because of working hours.

Hargraves voiced the opinion that school officials want to avoid situations where "extra pressure" is put on youngsters who would be competing before a large crowd if the game was played at night.

He added that "although the night game might be successful financially, it is not with the theory of high school athletic policies at this time."

Several Nonpareil Club members argued that the night game would be an actual "thrill" for players on both teams regardless of the final outcome and would serve to promote athletics in the city.

Another argued the opinion that the night game would "develop into a thing to look forward to" by young football players and would keep football interest at a high pitch so that more sophomores would come out for high school varsity athletics in the fall.

Hargraves countered with the fact that he was merely "relaying the word of the people involved" and that he "would not try to ram the night game proposal down the throats of coaches and principals at East and West junior high schools.

Westgate football is coached this year by Bill Erlitz while Dom Cascio is head grid mentor at East. The majority of victories have been in Westgate's favor during the four-year series.

H. A. (Hap) Tullis, president, presided for a short business session during which he thanked several members for cleaning up the scoreboard at Patterson Field.

Potter coach Lou Venditti discussed Girard High, East Liverpool's opponent Friday night, and screened movies of the opening game with Youngstown South.

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — About 2,600 students attending branches of Ohio University in six Ohio cities will see the university's football games free ths year.

Dean of Branches Albert C. Gubitz said Tuesday a special section of the stadium will be reserved for students from the branches in Lancaster, Zanesville, Ironton, Portsmouth, Chillicothe and Martins Ferry.

The arrangement is in line with a policy to make the branch colleges a more integral part of the university, Gubitz said.

15 Games Set This Week For Area Squads

Seven district teams will be seeking their first victory of the young football season, with another full schedule of 15 games on tap this week.

Action will get under way Thursday night when Coach Charlie Miller takes his New Cumberland Raiders to Weirton for a meeting with Madonna.

New Cumberland has one victory in three starts a 13-0 decision over Newell last week.

Ten games are slated Friday, with East Liverpool, Wellsville, Newell, Leetonia and South Side all attempting to get into the win column. Four more games Saturday will round out the week's football activity.

The Potters, after losing their opener to Youngstown South, visit Girard, a team which lost its first start to Hubbard.

Wellsville didn't lose, but had to settle for a tie in its first battle with Leetonia. The Tigers go against Toronto Friday night. Coach Earl Biederman's team is fresh from a 20-0 victory over Carrolton.

Newell, after two straight setbacks, entertains Hopedale at Memorial Stadium. The Vikings dropped their opener to Cameron and their second start to New Cumberland.

South Side, also on a two-game losing streak, plays its first home game, with Moniteau visiting the Hookstown area school Friday.

In other action, Midland opens WPIAL play at Beaver. Coach John Petchel's charges have won two exhibition tilts, defeating Beaver Falls and last week Pittsburgh Taylor.

Four Columbiana County teams will launch Tri-County League action Friday.

East Palestine will open a bid for its fourth Tri-County championship when Sebring invades that night. The Bulldogs defeated Beaver, Pa., in their opener.

Lisbon takes its high-powered offense, led by Tom Brooks, to Minerva. Brooks scored four touchdowns in Lisbon's easy victory over Goshen Union last week.

Leetonia, after its tie with Wellsville, faces Louisville, a Tri-County opponent, and Columbiana travels to Poland in another League battle.

Salem will shoot for its second straight at home with Ravenna furnishing the competition.

Two top games feature Saturday's schedule of four contests.

Local prestige is at stake when Chester, with three straight victories, visits United and Irondale plays at Beaver Local. Both contests are listed for the afternoon beginning at 2 p. m. United and Beaver Local will be looking for their first victories.

Salineville will travel to Springfield Township Saturday and Lowellville will visit Fairfield-Waterford.

Of the colts eligible for the Pimlico Futurity (Nov. 14), Alamonde Farm's Ouija Board was the first stakes winner. He won a division of the Hialeah Juvenile on March 2.

McCormack To Be Ready For Steelers

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mike McCormack moved into his spot at right offensive tackle Tuesday as the Cleveland Browns worked out at League Park for their season Steelers Saturday night.

It was the first workout for the team captain since he suffered a knee injury at the Hiram training camp nearly two months ago. He said the knee, operated on early last month, felt good after the practice session.

"It made the fellows feel great just to see Mike back in there," said Coach Paul Brown. "He was busting away just like he used to.

"We won't throw him into any full scale action right away but it's great to have him so close to being ready. Mike is a big part of the heart and soul of our football."

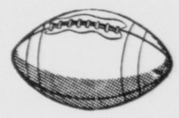

Jim Shofner and Ray Renfro, injured in the victory over the Chicago Bears, also worked out Tuesday—Shofner at right defensive halfback and Renfro at flanker. Warren Lahr, also injured in last Saturday night's game, took it easy but expects to be ready for the Steelers.

Frank Geremia, a tackle from Notre Dame, took part in the early drilling, but was on the sidelines when Brown drilled the offensive unit in preparation for the visit to Pittsburgh.

Geremia, one of the best college linemen in the nation last fall, was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers, but wasn't claimed when his name appeared on waivers last week. If he is signed by the Browns it will mean that someone must go as the club is now at the 36-player limit.

Last Friday, 140 eastern chain pickerel were placed in Zepernick Lake in addition to the previous stocking.

These fish were in excellent shape and varied in size from 6 to 11 inches, although they were all hatched at the same time last May.

Breeder eastern chain pickerel were stripped of their eggs last April and in turn the eggs were fertilized and hatched in May in the state hatchery at Meyers Lake in Akron.

—:—

I ASKED Jerry Mantz, one of the state fish management agents, how he could account for the varience in sizes.

He said "it could be compared to people." For instance, I weigh 150 pounds and am much older than he, yet he weighs 180 pounds. Maybe we both eat the same thing, yet, there is a difference in people the same as there are in fish.

One thing so outstanding about these cannabilistic fish is that they actually eat each other. Originally, there were 3,000 eastern chain pickerel placed in the same rearing pond.

An attempt was made earlier in the summer to lower the water in the rearing pond in order to take the fish out and remove them to the waters on the agenda to be stocked.

It so happened that the water temperature was too high and the fish begin showing signs of weakening and would no doubt have died if the removal operation had not been stopped.

So, the removal operation was delayed through necessity and the rearing pond was allowed to refill with fresh water.

IN THE final analysis, the original 3,000 pickerel had reduced themselves to only 140 survivals, which is an outstanding example of "survival of the fittest".

Some people wonder why the state doesn't stock mature muskies, northern pike, pickerel and even bass. Any cannabilistic fish cannot be reared to maturity in a small rearing pond. If the pond is allowed to stand as is, without any fish removal, the final result would be the survival of the fittest or one or two fish that could not eat each other.

In a large expanse of water the cannibalistic or predator fish cannot get at each other and as a result more fish survive and the number of mature fish increases.

I know of some instances of private pond owners who stock channel cats, walleyes, trout, bass and northern pike, all in a small body of water.

Certainly this is not good fish management practice, although I do not discount the value of increasing the catch which might be good business to induce the anglers to try their luck. It also would increase the revenue taken in at the gate. Biologically, it is unsound. To keep catchable size fish in a 1-to-10-acre pond would require annual stocking while the "battle royal" goes on beneath the surface that would be detrimental regardless of who owns the pond, without providing good fishing once the annual stocking has ceased.

IT IS against the law of nature to mix unfriendly people with each other when people are supposed to be human beings, able to think for themselves, live and let live while the few cannibals on this earth are certainly in isolated spots of the uncivilized nature that live according to prehistoric rules.

Fish are not human beings and not accountable for their actions. So it is up to fish technicians to provide the most compatible homes for the fish, provide the needed predators to keep down the undesirables and at the same time produce fish that make the fishermen happy. This is not easy.

Progress has been made introducing new fishes and game fish in inland waters where they never existed before. One thing is sure—it was not done by guesswork.

Braves Take 1-Game Edge; Cards Trip Dodgers, 11-10

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sorts Writer

Remember the last time the National League had a three-team fight for the flag? It was 1956 and in the final week fourth-place St. Louis crashed Milwaukee out of it while the Dodgers stepped over seventh-place Pittsburgh to the pennant.

Cincinnati was the third club in on that down-to-the-wire race, finally given the gate by the Chicago Cubs to finish third, two games shy.

The Braves have breezed to two flags since then, and now, driving for a rare third in a row, they've surged into a one-game lead, beating fourth-place Pittsburgh 5-3 Tuesday night while seventh-place St. Louis jarred the Dodgers out of a first-place tie by battering Los Angeles 11-10.

In keeping with that pennant pattern of three years ago, third-place San Francisco plunged two games behind with a 5-4 loss to the Cubs.

Each of the contenders has four games left. All finish the current series today. Then the Braves go home for a three-game weekend series with last-place Philadelphia while the Dodgers shift to Chicago and the Giants switch to St. Louis in the final run to decide who plays the Chicago White Sox in the World Series a week from today.

The White Sox put away their first American League pennant in 40 years Tuesday night, beating Cleveland, the only club that could snatch it from them, 4-2.

Milwaukee's late surge to become the first three-in-a-row NL winner since the Cardinals of 1942-43-44 now has given the Braves a four-game streak and 13 victories in their last 15 games.

To do it, they had to stand off a ninth-inning Pirate rally for the second night in a row. Lefty Juan Pizarro (6-2) beat the Bucs a third time after building a 4-1 cushion with a two-out, two-run double as the Braves scored three in the seventh off Harvey Haddix (12-12).

Reliever Don McMahon finally nailed it, giving up a pair of scoring singles by Smoky Burgess and Don Hoak before striking out pinch-hitter Rocky Nelson for the final out.

Andy Pafko doubled and John Demerit, replacing injured Bill Bruton in center field, beat out a bunt single for the Braves in the clinching seventh. Then, after Del Crandall, who had hit his 21st homer in the fifth, hit into a double play and Felix Mantilla got an intentional pass, Pizarro sliced his double just inside the left field line. Bobby Avila, who tripled in the first and scored on Hank Aaron's fly, then singled in the final run off Haddix.

Milwaukee took more than a percentage-point lead for the first time since June 30 as the Cardinals went to work on the Dodgers. Los Angles, making it close on rookie Frank Howard's pinch-hit, three-run homer in the ninth, chased nemesis Larry Jackson in the first inning, but blew 3-0 and 6-4 leads.

Hal Smith bombed starting Dodger southpaw Sandy Koufax with his first grand-slam homer in the first inning. After Gil Hodges' two-run, 24th homer gave the Dodgers the 6-4 edge in the third, the Cards came back with five runs in their half of the third. Curt Flood's three-run homer set it off against losing reliever Chuck Churn (3-2). Joe Cunningham singled in the tying run in the frame and a double by ex-Dodger Gino Cimoli scored the lead run.

The Cardinals won it with two runs in the fifth, getting the clincher on an error by Carl Furillo on Cimoli's RBI single.

The Giants dropped their fourth in a row on a two-run, two-out homer by rookie George Altman in the ninth. It came off Sad Sam Jones, working in relief and tagged with his 15th defeat, third in a row since winning his 20th. Don Elston (9-8) was the winner in relief, coming on in a two-run eighth when the Giants, who left nine men on base, scored twice for their only lead, 4-3.

The Cubs took fifth place with the victory as Cincinnati fell to sixth with a twi-night doubleheader loss at Philadelphia, 3-1 and 3-2.

In the other AL games, New York beat Washington 8-4, Detroit defeated Kansas City 6-4 and Boston beat Baltimore 4-3.

Gordon Out After Loss; Durocher's Next Pilot?

CLEVELAND (AP) — Joe Gordon was out today as Cleveland manager with four games still left on the Indians' schedule. General Manager Frank Lane said he hoped to name the 1960 Cleveland pilot soon, perhaps before the week is over.

The leading candidate appears to be Leo Durocher, who quit a $65,000 job with the National Broadcasting Co. earlier this month to return to baseball where he piloted three National League pennant winners.

So leading, in fact, is Durocher's candidacy that other names — among them Fred Hutchinson of Cincinnati and Charley Dressen of Los Angeles — have come in for scarcely more than a mention.

For the rest of the season Mel Harder, veteran pitching coach, will manage the Indians. The four remaining games with Kansas City here starting Friday will be used to test the club's rookies. Tuesday night's 4-2 loss to Chicago mathematically eliminated the Indians, and the team has had second place sewed up for some time, so this weekend's games mean nothing to the standings.

Heavy Match Seen June 7

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The return heavyweight fight between champion Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson will be staged in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium next June 7, providing two conditions are met, The Associated Press learned today.

A reliable source close to the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission said that "according to Vincent Vellela we'll get the fight." Vellela is a director of Rosensohn Enterprises Inc., which was associated in the promotion of last June's match when Johansson dethroned Patterson.

But the source, who did not want to be identified, made it quite clear that Philadelphia would take the fight only if "Vellela and his group come out clean in the current investigation by the New York State Athletic Commission on the promotional angles of last June's fight.

"And a subsequent investigation by the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commissions turns out okay."

Johansson signed last Aug. 25 to defend his title in a return bout with Patterson. But at the time it was only specified that the bout would be held in the United States between next March 1 and June 15.

OSU Coach Optimistic On Bellaire Fullback

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State football coach Woody Hayes is optimistic that Mike Ingram may be ready to step in at fullback for injured Bob White.

The Bellaire sophomore ran well at the post in Tuesday's drill, Hayes said. White was on the sidelines again and it was not known if he'd scrimmage today.

Hayes is now tapering off sessions in preparation for Saturday's game with Duke.

LSU, Oklahoma, Irish Picked In Big Games

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Those scientists Nikita Khrushchev always is talking about did hit the moon with one of their rockets. But could they score a touchdown? The Soviet visitor should take an hour or two off this weekend and see how its done.

The scoring will be done in about this fashion:

Louisiana State over Texas Christian: The Louisiana Tigers have been voted the nation's best and their ace is Billy Cannon. He'll have to live up to his name to pierce that tough Texas line.

Oklahoma over Northwestern: This could be Oklahoma's best team in recent years. It will have to be to get past Northwestern, the Big Ten's No. 1 darkhorse. This will be on your TV screen.

Southern California over Pittsburgh: This is a Friday night affair.

Princeton over Rutgers: These two teams started this football business almost a century ago and this is their 50th encounter. Rutgers has won only five and never two in a row. Princeton lost 28-0 a year ago.

Iowa over California: The Rose Bowl rivals of last January meet earlier this season but the result will be about the same.

Syracuse over Kansas: The Easterners are powerful and need only a quarterback to be great.

Wisconsin over Stanford: Dale Hackbart, Badger quarterback, can run, pass and kick.

Auburn over Tennessee: The Auburn line will shackle famed Billy Majors, the Vols' wheelhorse.

Notre Dame over North Carolina: The George Izo to Monty Stickles battery should add to the North Carolina woes. But it will be close with Jack Cummings in the hero's role.

Indiana over Illinois: A rare Big Ten victory for the Hoosiers.

Texas over Maryland: The middle of the Texas line is solid with Rene Ramirez the star of the backfield.

Wyoming over Air Force: The graduation losses of the Falcons were heavy. Wyoming on the way back to the top of the Skyline loop.

Calloway, Ex-WVU Track Star, Hangs Self

CHARLESTON (AP) — The body of a former high school and West Virginia University track star was found hanging from a tree on the State Capitol lawn yesterday at a spot where hundreds pass daily.

He was Russell D. (Runt) Calloway, 48, of Huntington, an apparent suicide, police said. Coroner Goff P. Lilly estimated the man had been dead 24 to 36 hours. A note addressed to the family was found in the man's pocket. Police did not disclose its contents.

Calhoun, Ellis Mix Tonight In TV Fight

CHICAGO (AP)—Veteran Rory Calhoun of White Plains, N.Y., and young Rudy Ellis of South Have, Mich., meet in a 10-round middleweight bout in Chicago Stadium tonight.

Ellis, a 23-year-old who punched Bobby Boyd into retirement last month, hopes to use Calhoun as a stepping stone. The fight will be televised nationally (ABC-10 p.m. EDT).

Ellis, a native Chicagoan, has a 17-2 record and 10 of his victories have been by Ko's.

Calhoun, who will be 25 later this month, turned pro five years ago and has compiled a 29-7-2 record.

Princeton, Rutgers Vie In 50th Game Saturday

By JACK CLARY

In the 90 years since Princeton and Rutgers played the first intercollegiate football game, they have sandwiched 49 games between three major wars, several economic crises and a flock of football rule changes.

But the two schools go into game No. 50 Saturday at Princeton's Palmer Stadium with hardly a thought to that cold Nov. 6 back in 1869 when the two began the annual madness for 10 Saturdays each fall, and during the festive bowl days between Christmas and the New Year.

The series has seen football come from its rudimentary beginning on a barren field before a handful of spectators to its multi-decked stadia and millions of spectators each year, not to mention the millions more that watch each Saturday through television.

Princeton leads the series 44-5 but fell before the Scarlet and All America halfback Billy Austin 28-0 in 1958.

Princeton is a cofavorite with Dartmouth for the Ivy League title.

Maryland's Jim Davidson moved into a first string halfback slot for Saturday night's game with Texas at Dallas while Notre Dame lost quarterback George Izo for its opener against North Carolina. Izo re-injured his knee in drills Monday.

Pitt's quarterback Ivan Toncic is a doubtful starter for Friday night's game at Southern California with a knee injury. Dave Kraus will probably take over. Tackle Jerry Clements suffered a knee injury Tuesday and is not expected to start against Boston College in Army's opener at West Point.

Penn quarterback Larry Purdy is the star pitcher and captain for the Penn baseball team.

18 Pacers Are Entered In $76,582 Brown Jug

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—Eighteen 3-year-old pacers going here Thursday in the 14th Little Brown Jug mean a two-division runoff and a record Jug purse of $76,582.

Racing in the second division will be two of the favorites, Adios Butler and a filly, Meadow Maid. Canadian-born Clint Hodgins will handle Adios Butler and Del Miller will drive Meadow Maid.

Culver Pick, Adios Day, Carloader and Meadow Al are others at short odds.

Jug heats will be spaced throughout the day's other Grand Circuit races, which start at 3:15 p. m. EDT, at the Delaware County Fairgrounds.

The top five Jug pacers in each division will race in a third dash — twice around the half - mile track. If no horse has two wins by then, a fourth heat, involving only the three heat winners, will be staged.

Top finishers in the first three heats each will get $22,964.60. Ten per cent of the total purse—$7,658.20—will be held as a bonus for the eventual Jug champion, whether decided in the third or fourth heat.

Adios Butler has won the Cane Futurity and the Messenger Stakes in pacing's triple crown, and has a $109,000 bankroll for the year. He is the 6-5 favorite currently to win the Jug and complete a sweep of the triple crown.

Meadow Al, the winter book favorite, suffered a bad sprain recently but has been working out and will be able to go. This pacer's driver-trainer, Joe O'Brien, hopes to make it two Jugs in a row. His Shadow Wave won it last year in straight heats and picked up $36,000 of the $65,000 purse.

The year before, with the field divided, Torpid was first but won only $27,000 of a $73,000 melon.

Ohio Convict Who Fled Pen Is Captured

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—An Ohio convict who escaped from the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary Sunday night was nabbed by police on a Zanesville street early today.

Officers said the man identified himself as Frank Lewis Rush, 29, of Steubenville, Ohio, who broke out of the Atlanta prison while most of the other inmates of his cell block watched a movie.

Rush was serving two years for interstate transportation of a stolen car. And it was an automobile stolen from Lexington, Ky., that led to his arrest. A state highway patrolman spotted the car parked at a filling station and notified police. A short time later a local resident complained he saw someone trying to steal his automobile.

Officers stopped Rush as he walked along a street. The man started to run, but when caught, officers said, he admitted his identity at once.

Atlanta prison authorities said Rush had been assisted in his escape by two companions who apparently helped him use a steel pipe to separate the bars on a window at the end of the cell block. A window glass was broken, and Rush went out, climbing over a picket fence to escape across a field. Guards captured the other two men.

Louisiana Widow Wins $25,000 For Her Cake

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 58-year-old Louisiana widow's cake has won her $25,000.

Eunice Surles of Lake Charles walked off with the top prize of Pillsbury's 11th grand national bake-off Tuesday.

She did it with her Mardi Gras party cake, a delight to vision and taste.

Her elaborate creation features melted butterscotch morsels in the batter and filling and a crown of either brown sugar frosting or whipped cream.

Second grand prize went to Joyce S. Anderson, Orchard Park, N.Y., $5,000 for her strips-of-beef casserole.

Girls Slip By Security Men To Mr. K's Suite

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Four Des Moines teen-age school girls slipped through security officers at Hotel Fort Des Moines Tuesday and made their way up 10 flight to the penthouse suite reserved for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Stunned security men whisked the girls back down on an elevator and in the lobby they met Khrushchev who had just arrived at the hotel. The Premier greeted each girl with a smile and said he was happy to see them.

Rockefeller Straightens Out Point For Mr. K

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says he wants to straighten out Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev on one important point.

Khrushchev has been speaking of capitalism versus communism.

"This country does not have a capitalistic system of government," the millionaire New York governor said in a speech Tuesday night. "We have a democratic system of government. Capitalism is the economic and financial process which functions within our democratic system."

Bridge Hearing Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 58-year-old bridge which takes Ohio 521 across Alum Creek northeast of Delaware should be replaced, the Highway Department says. It has arranged a public hearing Thursday in Delaware. Total cost of a new bridge would be about $230,000, the department estimates.

Iron Age Warns Of Steel Shortage

NEW YORK (AP)—Unless the steel strike ends within the next two weeks, the nation faces its worst steel shortage since the end of World War II, Iron Age magazine said today.

The national metal working weekly said that steel stocks will drop to about 11 million tons next week.

"The total," the publication said, "is unbalanced as to location, product and gage. This has resulted in widespread gray market sales, shifting and trading of steel stocks and increased conversion."

Interest in conversion (buying of semi-finished steel from one source to be rolled at another mill) is mounting, the publication said. Buyers were said to believe conversion costs will run as high as 17 to 20 cents a pound.

"Mills have now given up hope," Iron Age said, "of an orderly recovery after the strike."

Mother-Teacher Loses Job Due To Shoplifting

ST. JOSEPH, Mich. (AP) — A Michigan school teacher-mother, who pleaded guilty to shoplifting with her college majorette-daughter in South Bend, Ind., lost her school teaching job here.

The St. Joseph School Board voted to accept what it termed the verbal resignation of Mrs. Shirley Hutchison, 47, as a fifth grade teacher "without comment."

Mrs. Hutchison told newsmen her 21-year-old daughter, Sandra, a former "Golden Girl" majorette at Purdue University, left Monday to re-enter school there.

The mother and daughter pleaded guilty at South Bend to shoplifting, but Mrs. Hutchison declared Tuesday they were innocent.

She said they pleaded guilty "because it would cost too much to fight the case."

She and her daughter, Mrs. Hutchison said, merely were unable to find receipts for goods found in the mother's shopping bag.

Boy Killed, 7 Hurt In Cleveland Mishap

CLEVELAND (AP)—A car careened out of control near Municipal Stadium Tuesday night, killing a 3-year-old boy and injuring seven persons. None was seriously injured.

Michael Gulachek was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gulachek, as they started to get into their parked car.

The father, alerted by the screams of pedestrians, pushed his wife and another child, Terry Linn, 2, out of the way. The runaway car slammed into one parallel to the Gulachek car. The boy was crushed between the two vehicles.

Ross W. Castle, 74, driver of the runaway car, said the accelerator jammed.

New Hampshire Group Asks Kennedy To Run

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — The New Hampshire Democratic State Committee has unanimously asked Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) to enter the state's first-of-the-nation presidential primary March 8.

A resolution adopted Tuesday night termed Kennedy "the only prospective candidate" who can "win the support and confidence of all the people and lead our national, state and local tickets to victory."

The resolution was sponsored by Democratic national committeeman Bernard L. Boutin, a candidate for governor.
